

Please Don't Mourn for Me

*Please don't mourn for me,
I'm still here, though you don't see.
I'm right by your side each night and day,
and within your heart I long to stay.
My body is gone but I'm always near,
I'm everything you feel, see or hear.
My spirit is free, but I'll never depart,
as long as you keep me alive in your heart,
I'll never wander out of your sight;
I'm the brightest star on a summer night.
I'll never be beyond your reach;
I'm the warm moist sand when you're at the beach.
I'm the colorful leaves when fall comes around,
and the pure white snow that blankets ground.
I'm the beautiful flowers of which you're so fond,
the clear cool water in a quiet pond.
I'm the first bright blossom you'll see in the spring;
The first warm raindrop that April brings.
I'm the first ray of light when the sun starts to shine,
and you'll see that the face in the moon is mine.
When you start thinking there's no one to love you,
you can talk to me through the Lord above you.
I'll whisper my answer through the leaves in the trees,
and you'll feel my presence in the soft summer breeze.
I'm the hot salty tears that flow when you weep,
and the beautiful dreams that come while you sleep.
I'm the smile on your baby's face. Just look for me, I'm every place!*

A Reflection of His Life

Mr. Ronnie Martin Williams made his debut appearance into the world on April 20, 1988. Born to Ms. Teresa Ashmore and Mr. Bobby Solomon, at an early age, he and two siblings were adopted by Mrs. Bertha Goodwin Williams and the late Mr. Ronnie Mason Williams. Reared in the Early Branch community from the age of four, he received his formal education in the public schools of Hampton County. Transitioning into adulthood, Ronnie entered the work force having several different career affiliations, such as the fast food and steel industries.

Having experienced life, Ronnie resided in Greenwood, SC, and Walterboro, SC, for a period of time, before returning to his native roots in Early Branch. Being brought up in the admonition of God, he was a member of Grace Heritage Restoration Ministries and served on the food ministry. He was a person who lived his life doing what he loved. A son, a brother, a cousin and a friend, to truly know him, was a joy and a privilege.

On Sunday, March 22, 2026, Ronnie departed from this life. Though his passing was sudden, we are reminded that his legacy will carry on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. Left to embrace the reflections of his life are: mother, Mrs. Bertha Mae Williams of the home; parents, Ms. Teresa Ashmore and Mr. Bobby Solomon of Blackville, SC; siblings, Alfredia B. (Abraham) White of Conways, SC, Rev. Alfred Ferguson of Marietta, GA, Pastor Dr. Richard Ferguson of Early Branch, SC, Pastor Johnny and Evangelist Linda Eady of Walterboro, SC, Jessica Williams & Candace T. Williams, both of Orangeburg, SC, Anesha (Charles) Priester, Bilaysia Deloach and Bobby Banner, all of Blackville, SC; grandmother, Dora White; aunts and uncles, Floyd & Eva Goodwin, Matthew & Delores Goodwin, Hebert Goodwin, Lester Goodwin, Eunice Washington, Mary Alice Blue, Donna Marie (McNeal) Smith, Donnell Thompson, Donald Thompson, Dennis Thompson, Richmond Ford, Shirley Goodwin, Roseanne Goodwin, Deloris (Johnson) Williams, Margie Williams, Jeanette Moore, Floyd Williams, and Louise Williams: great aunts and uncles; Elizabeth Green, Evelena Gadson, Nathan & Julia Green, James Lee Goodwin, and Wilhelmenia Green: along with a host of numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
