

FROM YOUR SON

There are no words to describe the weight of losing you, but my heart is full of the life and laughter we shared. I treasure the hours we spent just hanging out, where nothing was off-limits and we could talk about any and everything under the sun. You were my anchor and my biggest fan, always ready with the best advice and your signature "Yeah, man" or "No, man" to help me find my way. Thank you for your unwavering support and for standing behind me in everything I set out to do. I miss being able to just call you up to check on you, hear your voice, and see how you're doing. We lived by a simple rule: it was never "goodbye," only "I'll see you later." I'm ending this the way we ended every conversation, with the three words that will never fade: I love you, Dad. "I'll see you later." – Love, "Jr."

FROM YOUR DAUGHTER

*Daddy, no matter the time or distance, I never stopped loving you. Your love lives on through me and your grandchildren. I will carry you in my heart forever. Rest peacefully.
Love – "Michelle"*
