

Missing You Always,
HUSBAND

You never said, "I'm leaving"

You never said goodbye.

You slipped into the silence,

And only God knows why.

A million times I reached for you,

A million tears I cried.

If love could build a bridge to you,

You never would have died.

In every room I feel your touch,

Your voice still fills the air.

I long to hold your hand again

And feel that you are there.

My heart still aches in sorrow,

But you did not go alone-

Part of me went with you

The day God called you home

I Will Always Love You...

A REFLECTION OF HIS LIFE

Mr. Vernon Chisolm, son of the late Mr. Dan Chisolm & Mrs. Gladys Brown Chisolm, was born April 29, 1962, in Augusta, Georgia. After the sudden passing of his father, his grandmother, the late Eva Brown Cohen, took him into her home and raised him in the Roadside community of Yemassee, South Carolina. He was in between the two for a vast majority of his early life and received his education from the public schools of Augusta, Georgia and Colleton County, South Carolina.

As he stepped into adulthood, “Family” was everything to him. Being an only child, he drew close to his first cousins and made sure to keep in touch as often as possible. In later years, he became employed as a truck driver, and drove abroad, learning new areas, meeting new people, and seeing different things. In recent years, Vernon, while stopping at a corner store, was stunned by the beauty of Ms. Kendetta Smalls. Well, on May 9, 2022, Kendetta and Vernon became one, as they were joined in holy matrimony. This union brought the best of both worlds, as they shared a love that was as strong as life itself.

Affectionately known as “Tracy”, he was a genuine person. He had a smile that Steve Wonder would have seen across the country. Having been through things in life, he possessed patience, humility, loyalty and truly a caring person for people. There was nothing he could or would not do for anyone, and his close-knit circle of family and friends, was his life.

During the morning hours of Monday: April 6, 2026, our loving Mr. Vernon “Tracy” Chisolm, departed from the shore of time. Though his departure leaves a void, his life and legacy will forever comfort the hearts of all who loved him. Left to cherish the fond memories of his life are: wife, Kendetta S. Chisolm; special cousin and sister, Vivian Williams; mother in law, Kelsey Hicks; father in law, James Johnson; sisters and brothers in law, Edward Smalls, Vonya Smalls, Rickel Smalls and Richard Hicks, Jr.; first cousins, Mary Alice Waymer, Sandra Rhodes, Janice (Roger) Williams, Ricky Brown, Evanell Elliot, Kenneth Manigo, Michael Manigo, Namon Manigo, Bobby Manigo, Donald Manigo and Charles Manigo; along with a host of numerous other relatives and friends.
