Reverend Joseph Williams, Jr., Pastor

To My Loving Son

Please don't remember only the day I had to leave, or let my final moment be the story that you grieve.

*Remember all the laughter, the ordinary days.
The love we shared so freely, in quiet, simple ways.*

*I know your heart is aching, I know you miss me too,
but I am not as far away as it may seem to you.*

*I live within the memories, that time can never take,
within the love still left behind; in every heart / shaped*

So speak my name with gentleness, let stories bring a smile, and when the tears come, let them fall, then rest with them awhile.

Do not think you must be strong every single day, grief is just love reaching out when words get in the way.

And though my life on earth is done, my love has not gone too; for every life I touched still holds a piece of what is true.

So carry me with tenderness, but let your heart live too, for every step you take in love keeps part of me with you.

His Garden

God looked around His garden

And found an empty place

He then looked down upon the earth

And saw your beautiful face

He put His arms around you

And lifted you to rest

God's garden must be beautiful

He always takes the best.

Although He knew you were happy here

But He needed you with Him

He told you that you'd never again be in pain

Although you'd leave this earth dim

It broke my heart to lose you

But you didn't go alone

For part of me went with you

The day God called you home.

A GLIMPSE OF HER LIFE

“She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come.”
Proverbs 31:25

Mrs. Vernie Mae Brown, the eldest daughter of the late Lougene & Arthur Chisolm, Sr., was born January 18, 1948. As a youth she began receiving her education in the local school of the Jonesville Community. Facing adversities such as racism and recent integration, Vernie persevered on and would successfully graduate with the Colleton County High School Class of 1968.

Beginning the journey of life, she accepted Christ at an early age. She was baptized and became a member of the Mount Nebo Baptist Church, under the pastoral leadership of the late Reverend Mannie C. Chisolm. During her tenure, Vernie was very active with the Junior and Combined Choirs.

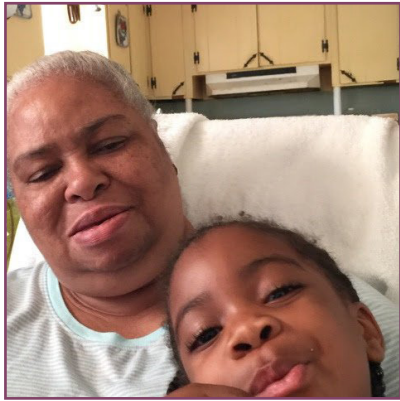

She was employed with Sally Hill’s Truck Stop of Yemassee, South Carolina, until its closure. Later she became employed with the Point South Inn of Yemassee, South Carolina. She met the love of her life Mr. Leon Brown, and December 27, 1970, the two were joined in Holy Matrimony. This love story would carry on and be blessed with one son, Troy, and fifty-one (51) years of marriage, until his passing in 2021.

Vernie possessed a very quiet persona. However, when it came to the “stories” on TV, she and her sister-in-law, Doll, had endless conversations. Although she was a lady of few words, her character spoke volumes. She adored and loved her family and would go above and beyond for any of them.

During the afternoon hours of Thursday, August 13, 2026, our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend, traded her time on earth for a home in eternal glory. Along with her parents and husband, she is also preceded in death by, her brother Keith Lamar Chisolm and sister-in law, Shirley Chisolm.

Left to forever embrace the many fond portraits of her life are: loving son, Troy Nigel Brown (Vickie) of Rock Hill S.C.; step-daughter, Aletha Robinson(Windell) of Burlington Township, NJ; three grandchildren, Troy Nigel Brown II, Troyana Breyle’ Brown, and Ja’Keriah Sheppard; two step-grandchildren, Jahmiah Robinson and Ja’Nylia Robinson; Goddaughter Cynthia (Ronald) Pencile-Williams; three sisters, Louise (Norman) Robinson, Victoria Chisolm, and Hattie M. Chisolm; four brothers, Jesse Chisolm, Johnathan (Sylvia) Chisolm, Alfred (Hazel) Chisolm and Arthur (Leslie) Chisolm Jr.; sister-in-law, Ruthie “Doll” Jones; four aunts, Julia (Nathan) Green, MaryJo (Amos) Riley, Pearl M. Williams and Mary Lee Chisolm; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
