Our Mother

You can only have one mother,
Patient, kind and true;
No other friend in all the world will be the same to you!

When other friends forsake you,
to Mother you will return;
For all her loving kindness,
she seeks nothing in return.

As we look at her pictures,
sweet memories we recall,
Of a face so full of sunshine,
and a smile, one for All!

Sweet Jesus, take this message to our dear mother up above, Tell her how much we miss her and give her all of our love.

His Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your beautiful face
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
Although He knew you were happy here
But He needed you with Him
He told you that you'd never again be in pain
Although you'd leave this earth dim
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

A Reflection of Her Life

Mrs. Janet "Duck" Washington was born on June 12, 1953, in rural Colleton County, to the late James and Evelena Williams Washington. She passed away peacefully in her home on September 2, 2026, at the age of 73, surrounded by her loving family and friends. Janet grew up in the Roadside Community where she was given the name "Duck" for her small but mighty statue, and big affectious brown eyes. Educated in the Colleton County public school system, she later ventured beyond South Carolina, embracing the opportunities and adventures traveling the world, a journey that carried her far beyond her hometown.

As a devoted military wife, she journeyed from Germany to Phoenix, Arizona, where she spent several years building a life and serving as a cook at Luke Airforce Base. Later her heart led her back home to Walterboro, South Carolina. There she became a familiar and cherished presence at Northside Elementary School faithfully serving as a custodian until her retirement. No matter where life took her, she worked hard, cared deeply for others, and left a lasting impact on everyone she met.

Janet was a loving mother, big sister, and friend. Memories of her being the Life of the Party, when she came, she came to dance and dancing she did. These moments will forever be etched in our hearts, remembered and carried forever by all who loved her.

Preceding her in death along with her parents are: brothers, Mackey Williams and Sylvester Jenkins; sister, Virginia Jenkins; and niece, Myra Deal. Left to cherish her memories, are: children, Sharonda Williams, Latisha "Nikki" Williams, Ahmad (Amina) Williams, and Denise Williams; special nephew reared in the home as her own son, Kevin Patrick; grandchildren, Hakeem, Kevona, Shateja, Shawanna, Jykell, Khalea, Samihah, Saniyah, Kamil, and Jaavonte: Reared as grandsons, Alex Walker and Kashiem Gant: great grandchildren, Shykeem, Khi'loni, Kali, Kamari, Kailynn, Kymere, Kaleyah and Uriyah; siblings, James (Shirley) Washington, Shelia Washington, Thomas (Mary) Washington, Patricia (Timothy) Floyd, and Darryl (Veronica) Washington: sister-in-law, Elaine Jenkins; uncle, Prince Williams; two God-children, Sheniece Washington and Shateja Odom; a special cousin Daisy Winston; dearest friends, Linda Martin and Mary Ann Rutledge; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Janet's life was a testament to loving, living, and finding joy each day. "Though we will deeply miss her presence, we are grateful for the time we shared with her. We will honor her memories by carrying forward the joy, love, and laughter she brought into our lives. Her spirit will remain with us always."
