

Grandma, I hope you land in heaven.
I miss you,
I'm sorry but no matter what,
I will never forget you!
You helped me with everything.
Love you Grandma.
With Love, Justice "Big Boy"

The Portrait of Her Life

"A life so beautifully lived deserves to be beautifully remembered."

Mrs. Sylvia Ibet Badger, a beloved wife, mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, and cherished member of her community, was born on January 13, 1968, in Brooklyn, New York. The daughter of the late Efrain Melendez and Nilda Rivera, she was educated through the public school system of New York, where she proudly graduated in 1986. Following graduation, she began her working career at Kimble, a warehouse in Springfield, Massachusetts. It was there that she met the love of her life, Rickey Badger. Their love blossomed, and on February 18, 1989, Sylvia and Rickey were united in marriage, beginning a journey of love, family, and togetherness that would span many years.

In 1990, Sylvia and Rickey relocated to Yemassee, South Carolina, where they began building their life and making lasting memories. In 1991, Sylvia was blessed with the birth of her daughter, Margerita Badger, who became a treasured part of her life and legacy.

Sylvia was a hardworking and dedicated woman who took great pride in providing for her family and serving others. She later joined Sodexo, where she served as the Cafeteria Manager for the Jasper County School System. Through her work, Sylvia became a familiar and caring presence to countless students, staff, and families. She was known for her dedication, strength, and commitment to those around her.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Sylvia's greatest joy was her family. She was a woman who loved deeply, worked tirelessly, and gave of herself to those she cared about. Her life was defined not only by the places she lived or the jobs she held, but by the love she shared and the lives she touched along the way.

Ultimately, on Saturday, September 5, 2026, Sylvia answered her Master's call and was changed from mortal to immortality. Along with her parents, Efrain Melendez and Nilda Rivera; she is also preceded in death by: brother, Gilberto Rivera; two infant sons, Rickey Jr. and Arnell; father in law, James E. Badger; mother in law, Rebecca Badger; and sister in law, Sonya Badger.

Sylvia leaves behind to cherish her memory her beloved husband, Rickey Badger; daughter, Margerita Badger; grandchildren, Justice Wright and Yasir Thomas; siblings, Lucy (Fred) Rosenlund of Sutton, Massachusetts, Alberto (Barbera) Feliberty of Winter Park, Florida, Santo (Aisha) Feliberty of Springfield, Massachusetts, Aida (Ralph) Feliberty of Springfield, Massachusetts, Orlando Feliberty of Tampa, Florida; Eddie (Waleska) Rivera of West Palm Beach, Florida; brothers-in-law, James Badger of Beaufort, South Carolina, Andrew Badger of Walterboro, South Carolina, Apostle Melvin (Bertha) Badger of Varnville, South Carolina, Apostle Mark (Georgianna) Badger of Bluffton, South Carolina, Kenneth (Lisa) Badger of Yemassee, South Carolina, John (Jessica) Badger of Yemassee, South Carolina and Apostle Athon Kennard (Luetta) Badger of Beaufort, South Carolina; sisters-in-law, Sonya Badger, Rosie Badger, and Pauline Badger; two godchildren, Ayanna Johnson of Yemassee, South Carolina and Joel Galloway of Hampton, South Carolina; along with extended family, friends, former coworkers, and the many people whose lives she touched throughout her journey.

Sylvia held a special place in her heart for her sister, Evilin Marcial, and Mary Reid. She also leaves a special mother, Beverly Erwin, whose love and presence were meaningful parts of her life. Though she may no longer walk beside those who loved her, her love, strength, memories, and legacy will remain forever.
