MESSAGE TO YOU DADDY

Our Father which art in heaven. We know you were not ready and neither were we, but God had other plans for you. You are now in a place where you can be there for us in more ways than you ever could when you were here. We will continue your legacy by bringing life to every room we step into. We will sing and dance to every song like...

"The Godfather"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Young Funeral Home - Yemassee, SC
Bethlehem Baptist Church - Early Branch, SC
and those who have offered support, prayers, kindness and love during this time.

IN LOVING

MEMORY

"The Godfather"

RICHARD E. WRIGHT SR.

JANUARY 14, 1951 - SEPTEMBER 7, 2026

A Life Well Lived

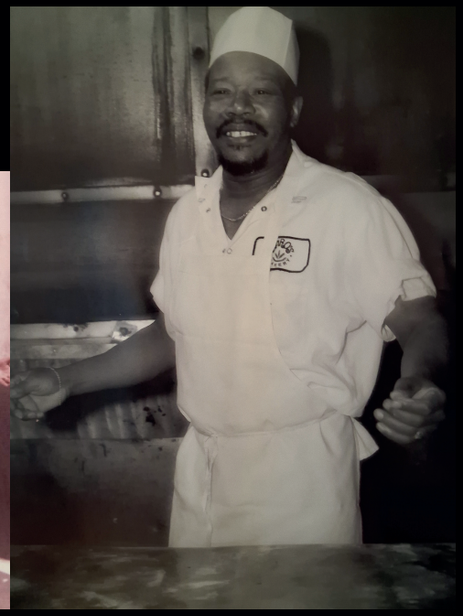

Obituary

Richard E. Wright Sr.

The son of the late Ode Wright & Earnestine Romina Hicks Wright. He was born January 14, 1951 in Early Branch, SC where he began his life and attended school in Varnville, SC. He then moved and lived in New York City until September 7, 2026.

He was a hardworking man throughout his life and retired as a Baker from Zaro's Family Bakery in the Bronx, New York.

He had a love for music and became a DJ Known as"The Godfather". He also loved to dance, cook, eat, and of course talk "slick". He was very humorous and loved to tell stories, especially about what he cooked for the day.

1974 he was united in marriage to Jean L. Rouse Wright. To this union three children were born and now cherish his loving, funny, crazy & fond memories. Two daughters: YolandaWright, Tara Wright, and one son: Richard E. (Latanya) Wright Jr., 6 Grandchildren and 4 Greatgrand daughters.

"Granddaddy Coo-coo"

Leaving to Cherish

He also leaves to cherish those same memories to his siblings Sandra Bennett, Dorothy Frazier, Paulette Frazier, Earnestine (Sam) King, Odree Wright, Kathy (Minister Antonio Sr.) Rouse, Anna Jackson, Angelo (Rose) Wright, Mack (Betty) Wright, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many friends.
One brother resting in peace Braudus Wright

Order of Service

Viewing	10am - 11am
Prayer	Rev. Ronald Clayton
Scripture	Family & Friends
Reflections	2min each
Song
Acknowledgements & Closing	Family

"The Godfather"