

His Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your beautiful face
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
Although He knew you were happy here
But He needed you with Him
He told you that you'd never again be in pain
Although you'd leave this earth dim
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

The Essence of Her Life

Mrs. Carmel Williams Brown, daughter of the late Mr. Sam Williams and Mrs. Virginia Chisolm Williams, graced the earth on January 27, 1947, in Yemassee, South Carolina. Reared in the Jonesville community, she attended the local public schools and graduated from Colleton High School Class of 1966, Walterboro, SC.

After graduation, Carmel relocated to Connecticut. Here she would begin her life as a working woman, constantly doing what she needed to provide for her family. While in Connecticut, she was employed with Whitney Aircraft as a laborer, making different parts for various aircraft. She later moved to Washington D.C. and became employed with a local laundry mat, ensuring prompt service and the cleanest clothes one could ever imagine. As life would come back around full circle, so would Carmel, and she returned to her native community. Even though she was back, her drive and love for work never stopped. Her employment history also included: Holiday Inn of Walterboro, where she served first as housekeeper and then became a trainer for all the new hires; Jonesville Elementary School, where she was not only a cook, but an inspiration and a mentor; SkyCity, where she served as a cook along with her mother, who was a saleslady; lastly, she often traveled to Hilton Head, where she cleaned numerous rental and beach properties.

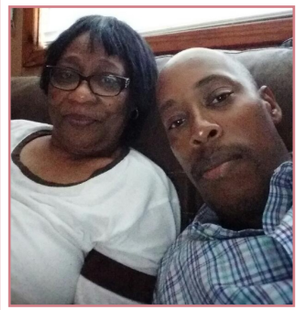

In 1962, she met the love of her life, Mr. Edward Brown, and the story began. In 1970, the two became one and were united in Holy Matrimony. This union would continue and be blessed for fifty-six years, until her passing.

A woman of virtue, she accepted the Lord as her Savior in her early adult years. She was baptized in Christian fellowship with the Mt. Nebo Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Rev. Thomas Chisolm. During her tenure with the church, she served faithfully on the choir, lifting her voice and praises unto God.

Affectionately called "Mel" by all she was not only a rare jewel, but a gem. In her spare time, she continually assisted in the care of numerous family members. She was the backbone of her family and wise beyond even her own understanding. Outside of being a wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and more; if you know Mel, you knew that Cleanliness was next to God, she kept everything clean! Her other hobbies included planting flowers, cooking and cleaning, watching Gunsmoke, and the Beverly Hillbillies.

During the early morning hours of Monday, September 21, 2026, after an extensive illness, Mel traded her time on earth for an eternity with her Savior and Redeemer. Though her physical presence is gone, we will forever celebrate the many portraits of her life that she has left. Along with her parents, she is preceded in death by: brothers, Marion Williams, Kenneth Williams, Charlie "Pete" Williams and Randolph Williams; and one sister, LouAnn Brown.
