I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free

I'm following the path God laid for me

I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way,

I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!

The Portrait of Life

Mrs. Martha Mitchell, daughter of the late Mr. Rolin & Mrs. Celestine Brown Clark, was born May 27, 1955, in Buffalo, New York. Her family then returned to Yemassee, South Carolina, where Martha would be raised and receive her formal education. Transitioning into adulthood, Martha entered the workforce, to provide for herself and her family. She began as a custodian at the Fennell Elementary School of Yemassee, South Carolina. She then moved back to Buffalo, for short time, where she was employed as a cook at the College of Buffalo. She then returned South, and started traveling to Hilton Head Island, South Carolina, where she cleaned houses and different rental properties.

Martha was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Mr. Jack Mitchell, Jr. Being brought up and having been taught in the way of God, Martha accepted the Lord as her Saviour and was a member of the Judah Temple of Deliverance of Walterboro, South Carolina, under the leadership of Bishop Anthony Myers. During her time, she also served in the ministry as an usher.

Affectionately known as "Martha Jo", she was who she was, straight across the board. You knew where you stood with her, at all times. She loved spending time with her family, laughing, joking, and even a hint of trash talking. During her spare time, she loved to go fishing and crabbing. Notably, she always remembered her birthday, but every week, she CELEBRATED her birthday!

During the morning hours of Friday, October 23, 2026; God in his infinite wisdom, called his beloved daughter from labor to reward. Her legacy of love, life and laughter, will forever be celebrated in the hearts of all who she knew and loved. Preceding her in death, along with her parents, and beloved husband are: sister, Bessie Mae Solomon; and brothers, Herbert Lee Green, Jr., Calvin Clark, and Nathaniel Clark.

Left to cherish the portraits of her life are: two brothers, Freddie C. Brown and Rolin (Pamela) Clark, Jr.; sister, Gwendolyn Clark; god son, Clinton (Stephanie) Hamilton; god daughter, Harmony Greene; loving nieces and nephews, Celestine, Natasha, Brenetta, Demetria, Trevelyn, Gerald, Felicia, Nathaniel, Marcus, Nicholas, Michael, Brandon, Anthony and Cameron; sisters in laws, Carrie Williams, Anna Bell (Deacon McArthur) Brown, Rosa Lee (Willie) Singleton, Lorine (Reverend Kardell) Ferguson, Sr., Sadie M. Brown and Patricia Butler; brothers in law, Henry Mitchell, Herman Mitchell and Sherman (Denise) Mitchell: a multitude of grand and great grand nieces and nephews; along with a host of numerous other relatives and friends.
