

Remember

Christina Rossetti

Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;

When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.

Remember me when no more day by day
You tell me of our future that you plann'd:

Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.

Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve:

For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,

Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

Acknowledgements

The family of Ms. Taquania Arion Wallace would like to extend our heartfelt thanks for the love, support, and many expressions of kindness shown to us during this time of sorrow.

Your prayers, visits, thoughtful words, and comforting presence have brought light to our hearts and reminded us that we are not alone.

Though her time with us was far too short, her life was filled with meaning, joy, and love. We are grateful to each of you who helped us celebrate her beautiful spirit and stood beside us in our grief.

Your compassion will always be remembered.

Celebrating the Life of Taquanria Arion Wallace

Taquania Arion Wallace was born on May 25, 2001, at Upson Regional Medical Center to Ms. Sanyika Latrice Wallace and the late Mr. Tony Brown. From the moment she entered the world, Taquanria brought light, laughter, and love to everyone around her. She was a beautiful soul whose presence could brighten any room and whose memory will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Taquania received her early education through the Lamar County Public School System, where she developed lifelong friendships and memories. She was a proud graduate of the Lamar County Comprehensive High School Class of 2019. Following high school, Taquanria continued her educational journey by enrolling at Ultimate Medical Academy, where she pursued a degree in Medical Administrative Assistance. She was determined, motivated, and always striving to build a better future for herself.

Throughout her professional life, Taquanria worked as a pharmacy technician and later gained experience working remotely with Foundever Services. She was a dedicated worker who took pride in everything she did. Though she had already achieved much, Taquanria continued to dream big. One of her greatest ambitions was to become a teacher, and she was actively in the process of enrolling back in school to pursue that calling—a reflection of her love for helping, guiding, and inspiring others.

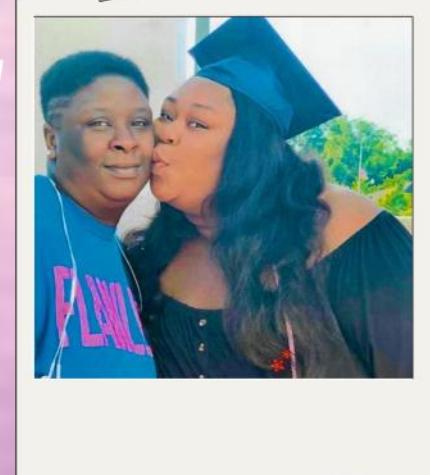

Taquania had a personality that was truly one of a kind. She was extremely entertaining and had a natural ability to make people laugh, often turning ordinary moments into unforgettable memories. Her infectious smile and joyful laughter were trademarks of her spirit. She loved the colors purple and silver, which reflected her vibrant and unique personality. Taquanria could talk for hours, especially with her favorite person, Jametrice Hosley, from sunup to sundown.

Family meant everything to Taquanria. She was always ready and willing to come pick up her little cousins, Zyian and Alijah, and spend time making memories with them. She loved deeply and showed it through her actions. Her hobbies included spending time with family, dancing, and singing—often filling rooms with music, laughter, and love.

Above all else, Taquanria was dearly loved by her mother, Ms. Sanyika L. Wallace, with whom she shared an unbreakable bond. Their love was evident to everyone who knew them, and Taquanria will forever be her mother's pride and joy.

Taquania Arion Wallace will be remembered most for her beautiful heart, her joyful spirit, and her unforgettable smile. Though her time with us was far too short, the impact she made will last a lifetime.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory her devoted mother, Ms. Sanyika L. Wallace; her aunts, Mrs. Telisha (Tony) Watkins Smith and Mrs. Sharon (Melvin) Gaines; her grandfathers, Mr. Charles Warner and Mr. Henry Watkins; her brothers and sisters; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins; and many dear friends who loved her deeply and will miss her always.
