CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF ROSALENE WOODS MURPHY

Rosalene Woods Murphy was born on September 25, 1958, in Barnesville, Lamar County, Georgia, to Mary Edna Weaver Blalock and Charlie Williams. The youngest of eight children, Rosalene attended Lamar County Comprehensive High School and graduated in 1976.

Rosalene dedicated 25 years of service to the Lamar County Department of Family and Children Services. She retired in 2012 due to health reasons, leaving behind a legacy of commitment to her community and the people she served.

Rosalene was preceded in death by her parents, Mary Edna Weaver Blalock and Charlie Williams; one son, Jerrell Murphy; her sister, Barbara Sue Ellerby and her brothers, Winfred Lavelle, Melvin Ed Woods, Terrell Woods, Jerry Woods, and Donnie Gene Lee.

She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Clorrisa Danyell McDowell of Barnesville, Georgia; her grandchildren, DaNarre McDowell, D'Nijah Harden, DaLani McDowell and DaLilah McDowell; her sisters, Albertine Murphy of Barnesville and Shirley Matthews of Griffin, Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins. She is also remembered with love by her two devoted friends, Olivia Banks and Frank Jones, both of Barnesville.

Rosalene's life will be remembered through the family, friendships, and community connections she treasured. Her memory will continue to be held close by all who knew and loved her.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

Until We Meet Again, Mama

In Loving Memory

How do I say goodbye to the woman who gave me life?
How do I find the words to express this kind of pain?
A part of me left with you, Mama,
And I know nothing will ever be the same.

You were my first home, my first love,
The voice I could recognize anywhere.
And even though I can no longer see you,
I hope you know I'll always feel you there.

There are so many things I wish I could tell you,
So many hugs I wish I could give.
So many more memories I wish we could make,
And so many reasons I wish you could stay.

I'll miss your voice, your smile, and your presence.
I'll miss the little things I may have taken for granted.
And on the days when life gets heavy,
I'll wish more than anything that I could call my mama.

But today, as I stand here with a broken heart,
I promise your love will never be buried with you.
Your lessons will live through me,
Your memories will live in my heart,
And everything you poured into me
Will continue to shine through.

Rest peacefully, Mama.
You no longer have to fight, hurt, or worry.
Your earthly journey has ended,
But your love story will never end.

I wasn't ready to let you go,
And a part of me never will be.
But until the day we meet again,
I'll carry you with me.

I love you, Mama. Yesterday, today, tomorrow, and forever
