

Precious Memories

Granny & Aunty

YOU HAVE LEFT OUR LIVES, BUT YOU WILL NEVER LEAVE OUR HEARTS.

You can shed tears that she is gone,
 Or you can smile because she lived,
 You can close your eyes & pray that she will come back,
 Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
 Or you can be FULL OF LOVE that you shared,
 You can turn your back on tomorrow
 and live yesterday
 Or you can be happy for tomorrow
 because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone
 Or you can CHERISH HER MEMORY
 and let it live on,
 You can cry and close your mind be empty
 and turn your back,
 Or you can do what she would want;
 smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep gratitude, all expressions of love and comfort in the form of cards, phone calls, visits and most of all, your prayers during this period of our loss. May God bless you.

Life Reflections

Crystal Denise Lineberger

Crystal Denise Lineberger, daughter of Maggie Lee Ramseur Lineberger and the late Artis Feimster Lineberger, spent her last hours surrounded by her loved ones before she passed quietly to sleep on Friday, June 16, 2023 at Atrium Health-Main, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Denise was born in Catawba County, North Carolina on November 26, 1956 where she grew up. She lived in Charlotte, North Carolina, Raleigh, North Carolina and Atlanta, Georgia during her life.

She graduated from Bunker Hill High School, Cass of 1975. She did further studies at North Carolina Central University and Strayer University.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was a faithful member of Providence United Methodist Church. Denise was dedicated to her faith. She served as Children Youth Minister, Social Media Assistant, Public Relations Assistant, and PPR Committee. She enjoyed singing and working in her church.

Denise was employed at IBM and retired after twenty four years of service. She was the owner of Senior Citizen Sitting Service. She had multiple business during her life. She was definitely a leader in her own right. She organized Mobile Blood Drives with the Red Cross. She was very active in her community. She was a lifetime member and Chairperson of the Catawba County NAACP.

Denise was a participant and leader of any organization. She was family oriented had a very humble spirit; however, she was quiet bossy and spoke her mind. Denise was loving, caring and supportive. She was very gifted. She was an organizer and loved to travel

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two siblings, Kathy Elaine Lineberger and Ronald "Snow" Lineberger; her grandparents, John Ramseur, Catherine Kennedy Ramseur, Harold Kenney and Cozette Lineberger Kennedy.

Those left to cherish fond and loving memories are her loving and devoted mother, Magie Lee Lineberger of the home; two brothers, Artis Lineberger (Dana) of Charlotte, North Carolina; Aaron Lineberger of Newton, North Carolina; one sister, Chevelle George of Hildebran, North Carolina; three nieces, Tiawan White of Hickory, NC; Tia Flowers of Elon, North Carolina; Azhia Reinhardt of Charlotte, North Carolina; four nephews, T.J. White of Hickory, North Carolina; Jayron Lineberger of Conover, North Carolina Charles Harbison of Los Angeles, California; Stedman Harbison of Charlotte, North Carolina; a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousin and friends.

My Aim Was

To help a stranger along the road,
To lean a hand and ease the load,
To cling to that which is good and true,
I felt that was what I was on earth to do.
