

Warm Summer Sun

By Mark Twain

Warm summer sun,
Shine kindly here,
Warm southern wind,
Blow softly here,
Green sod above,
Lie light, lie light,
Good night, dear heart,
Good night, good night.

Obituary

Kathleen Elizabeth Wingate

Kathleen "Kat" Elizabeth Wingate of Iron Station, N.C. transitioned from her earthly life on Tuesday, October 24, 2023 at Atrium Health Lincoln, after a brief illness.

She was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina on April 10, 1956 to the late Rev. James F. Wingate and Mrs. Ethel W. Wingate. She was the sixth child of their seven children and proud to bear the name of her fraternal grandmother, Mrs. Cathleen Johnson Wingate.

Kathleen spend most of her life in and around the Lincoln County and greater Charlotte area. She loved her family's homeplace in Iron Station, N.C. where she lived for the last 20 + years.

She graduated for East Lincoln High School in 1974, where she participated in many activities, including being an enthusiast cheerleader. She took a number of classes at CPCC after HS graduation.

Kathleen joined the team at Bell South (now AT&T) in 1978 and had a long career (32 years) with the Company, before retiring from her position as a Customer Service Representative in 2010. She was proud of her dedicated service to this company.

Kathleen loved life! She enjoyed watching sports, especially NFL football and was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan. She also really enjoyed college basketball.

Kathleen is preceded in death by her parents, Rev. James F. Wingate and Mrs. Ethel W. Wingate, her granddaughter, Makayla Rose Wingate and her brother Joseph L. Wingate.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her only son, Javais Markeit Wingate of Maiden and two beautiful granddaughters, Malea Wingate and Mya Wingate, also of Maiden. She is survived by five of her siblings. Three brothers: James F. Wingate, Jr. of Lincoln; Charles W. Wingate (Sandra) of Iron Station, and Jerome S. Wingate (Jackie) of Charlotte, N.C.; Two sisters: Phyllis A. Wingate of Kannapolis, N.C. and Carol "Renee" Farley (Frank) of Monroe, N.C. She has many nieces, nephews and extended family, as well as friends who will miss her dearly.
