

Crossing Over

Simply Olivia

Open-minded to all situations.
Like minded to those who oblige
Informative to those who would listen.
Valor, she embraced with pride.
Instilling tidbits of strength and wisdom.
Adoration she never desired.

Much love my Sister,

Life Reflections

The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

Psalm 90:10

Olivia Lucinda Foster Nixon was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina on May 13, 1942, to the late Earl Foster and Estelle Rhoney Foster. She transitioned from this earthly life on Sunday, October 29, 2023, in the comfort of her home.

Olivia graduated from Newbold High School in the Class of 1959. She was a connoisseur of history. She enjoyed studying the bible using the ability to write and translate using the Hebrew language. She retired from Bank of America.

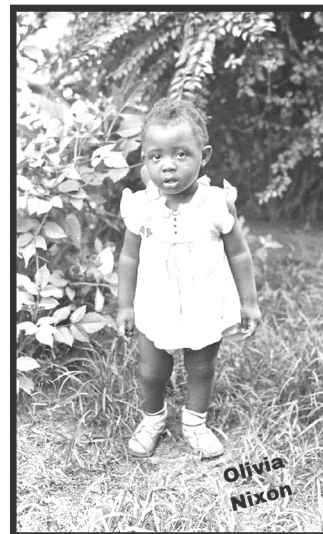

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband Curtis Joe Nixon and three siblings, Annie Jane Briggs, Carrie Berry, and Leon Roseman.

Olivia loved life, during her tenure she possessed many talents. She was a lover of classical music and mastered playing the piano and organ that led to traveling across the piedmont area with a local band managed by the late Haywood Easter.

She became an avid believer in astrology and spoke to various organizations and the local high school on how to manage your life "Zodiac Style".

Family gathering, traveling, and reminiscing were three of her favorite past times. Yes, those were the days.

Those left to cherish fond and loving memories are her loving and devoted children, Curtis Nixon, Jr. of Connelly Springs, North Carolina; Michael Nixon of the home; Julia Young Echols of Goldsboro, NC; one brother, William Foster of Charlotte, NC; one sister, Earline (Sammy) Smith of Lincolnton, NC; five grandchildren, Mariah Threatt, Desiree Bowden, Avionna Foster, Rihanna Roseboro, Seanna Roseboro, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
