When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to HOME.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows

In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

Reflections of Life

Floyd Gibbs, Jr. was born in Iredell County, North Carolina on October 30, 1960 to the late Floyd Gibbs and Martha McIntosh Gibbs. He transitioned from his earthly house on Thursday, December 28, 2023 at his residence.

He graduated from Maiden High School and attended Livingstone College. He retired as a machine operator from International Paper. Growing up he attended Maiden Chapel Baptist Church with his parents.

In addition to his parents Floyd was preceded in death by three siblings, Brenda Gibbs, Barbara Skinner and William McIntosh.

Cherished memories are left in the hearts of his three sons, Floyd Gibbs III, Johnny Ramseur both of Newton, North Carolina; Braylin Wilson of Greenville, South Carolina; one daughter, Bri'Anna Wilson of Greenville, South Carolina; one brother, Alfonzo McIntosh of Boston, Massachusetts; three sisters, Pearlie Chambers of Statesville, North Carolina; Patricia McIntosh of Troutman, North Carolina, Faye Gibbs of Newton, North Carolina; six grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Floyd was humble and quiet with a big and loving heart. He was affectionately called "Pops" by many. Evidence of his kindness were the many deeds he did to assist his family, friends and neighbors. He was an avid Dallas Cowboy fan. He will be sorely missed by his family and the community.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS
