

When I come to the end of the day
 And the sun has set for me
 I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
 Why cry for a
soul set free?
 Miss me a little, but not too long
 And not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love we once shared-
 Miss me, but let me go.
 For this is a journey we all must take
 And each must go alone.
 It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
 A step on the road to HOME.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart
 Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
 In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

Life Reflections

Mr. Robert Clint Derr was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina on May 29, 1952 to the late Mary Edith Derr. He transitioned peacefully on Sunday, January 21, 2024 at Catawba Valley Medical Center, Hickory, North Carolina.

He attended public school in Lincoln County, North Carolina. Clint was gifted with his hands. He was employed several years at McKinney Radiator as a technician. Clint enjoyed attending St. James United Methodist Church.

Clint leaves fond and loving memories in the hearts of his brother, Calvin Derr of Lincolnton, NC; one sister, Crystal Patrina Derr of Virginia Beach, VA; four aunts, Jessie Caldwell of Mooresville, NC; Margie Caldwell of Virginia Beach, VA; Sadie Derr of Gastonia, NC; Cora Mae Derr of Iron Station, NC; his friend/brother, Wardell Thompson of Denver, NC; several nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and friends.

He was affectionately called Lightning by his family and friends. He especially favored his great nieces, Mariah Thompson and Kaya Jones; also great nephews, Jamario Thompson, Donnie Thompson, Jordan Tyus and Mahari. Although he had no children, he loved and helped take care of his great nieces and great nephews as if they were his own. He loved Wardell Thompson, if you saw Wardell you normally saw Clint.
