When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see
If the sun shall rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you loved me, as much as I loved you
And each time that you think of me I know you'll miss me, too.
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came, called my name, and took me by the hand.
And said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye.
I had so much yet to do, it seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, I thought for just a while,
I would say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But when I fully realized that this could never be
For emptiness and memories would take the place for me.
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*

Life Reflections

Barbara Denise Bowser Ramseur was born in Catawba County, North Carolina on January 26, 1955, to the late Frazier Boston and Shirley Kissler Danner. Barbara departed her earthly house peacefully on Thursday, April 25, 2024, at Frye Regional Medical Center, Hickory, North Carolina.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, James Danner; father-in-law, Harold W. Ramseur; brother-in-law, Christopher Ramseur and a sister-in-law, Patricia Ramseur.

Our mom, Ms. B, Bob, Barb, Barbara. She was loved, adored, and known by many people. She was a powerful, confident, compassionate, intelligent, beautiful woman inside and out. She would be the first to tell you she was no angel. She touched the lives of almost every person she met and left a meaningful effect on their lives. Mom worked for many years at Regal Manufacturing Company where her work family embraced each other and made work fun.

Her first marriage was to William Bowser, which gave Freida Kissler her two brothers. She loved them dearly and was so proud to call them her sons. On May 20, 1987, she married her ace, her partner for life until the day she died, her Ronnie.

Barbara worked for Corning for a number of years and as usual in Barbara fashion she was a success at their company. After being laid off from Corning.

She decided to go back to school. Barbara was almost fifty at the time. She would always say it is never too late to learn. She received her Associate Degree in Early Childhood Education and soon after she was off and running. Pastor Vincent Ross was Barbara's friend and had a vision for affordable daycare.

He and Barbara cultivated a plan and Maiden Chapel open the Rosenwald Pre School where she was the Director until she retired in April 2022. She worked part time at the Group Home and continued to help at Rosenwald until her death.

Barbara was athletic, she played softball with her co-workers in a team league. She was so talented and loved to sing. She sang part time when her children were young. She later sang with the Maiden Chapel Choir. The love she had transferred to all the children that she cared for with fun and joy at Rosenwald.

Throughout the years she made many meaningful friendships. She befriended so many people. I her (Daughter) would like to think I was her best friend because she was definitely mine. We traveled together, laughed together, planned parties and family events together. When there was a disagreement, we made up immediately because we loved each other so much. My momma had the most infectious laugh and she had jokes for days. Barbara loved her scratch offs and poker. Las Vegas was always on the list to visit. I enjoyed spending Easter with her and as usual we had so much fun hanging out. We laughed, shopped, talked and danced together. Barbara gave us so much joy and left us with the most beautiful memories a child could ever wish for in life. I am so proud to say she was my Momma!

Those left to cherish fond and loving memories are her husband, Ronald Wayne Ramseur of the home; three sons, Auntwan Kissler (Tashia), Juan Bowser, Derron Ramseur (Hershon) all of Hickory, NC; one daughter, Freida Kissler of Baltimore, MD; one brother, Harold Danner of Hickory, NC; three sisters, Betty Danner of Hickory, NC; Chrissy Danner of Newton, NC; Angela Littlejohn of Jacksonville, FL; step mother, Martha Boston; mother-in-law, Margaret Ramseur; three brothers-in-law, Rev. Billy Ramseur(Janice); Minister George James (Sherrie); Harold J. Ramseur; two sisters-in-law, Marlene Dingle, Jane Ramseur, twelve grandchildren, sixteen great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Divine Healing

Along my journey here on this earth
I had some good days and some hills to climb.
I had a lot of days filled with laughter,
love and great memories.
But I also endured many sleepless nights.
Where my body was racking with pain and I had to call on Jesus.
He promised me Divine Healing
And now I have a glorified body!
Can't you just imagine me running around
