

When I come to the end of the day
 And the sun has set for me
 I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
 Why cry for a soul set free?
 Miss me a little, but not too long
 And not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love we once shared-
 Miss me, but let me go.
 For this is a journey we all must take
 And each must go alone.
 It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
 A step on the road to HOME.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart
 Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
 In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

Remembering Mont

Johnny Lamont “Mont” Odom Mayfield, 44, transitioned on Sunday, June 23, 2024 at his residence. He was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina on February 27, 1980, to Johnnie Mayfield and Ilene Odom Mayfield.

He received his high school education at Cherryville High School. He was employed in manufacturing as a forklift operator.

Mont as he was affectionately called was a person that never met a stranger. He had a quiet spirit and never met a stranger. His nephews were the joy of his life. He loved spending time with them. His favorite teams were the Duke Blue Devils, The Cubs and Carolina Panthers.

Johnny is preceded in death by his grandparents, Edward Lee Mayfield, Joann Hope Mayfield, Harper Milton Odom and Almeta Odom Tinsley.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Ilene Odom Mayfield and Johnnie Mayfield of the home; two brothers, Calvin Jerome Odom Mayfield, Justin Mayfield both of Vale, NC; four nephews, Casheim Odom, Khavijae Nixon Mayfield, Jalaythan Mayfield, Desmond Izard; one great niece, Emersyn Marie Odom; four uncles, David Lee Mayfield (Frankie), Perry Mayfield all of Gastonia, NC; Howard Odom of Vale, NC; David Lee Odom of Lincolnton, NC; Ashley McKenzie (Rev. Marvin) of South Carolina; Brenda Coperning (Freddie) of Vale, NC; Patricia Derr, Doretha Odom, Annette Werts (Eugene) all of Vale, NC; three great aunts, Ethel Paschal of Decatur, GA; Catherine Bennett (Aaron) of Gastonia, NC; Thelma Mayfield of Lincolnton, NC; a loving and dear friend, Megan Dubert, a host of cousins and friends.
