When Tomorrow Starts Without Me - By David M. Ramano

When tomorrow starts without me
And I’m not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
Are filled with tears for me

I wish so much you wouldn’t cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things
We didn’t get to say.

I know how much you love me
As much as I loved you
And each time that you think of me
I know you’ll miss me, too.

But when tomorrow starts without me
please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.

And said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And that I’d have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.

But when I walked through Heaven’s gate
I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden Throne

He said this is eternity
And all I promise you
Today your life on earth is past
But here it starts anew.

I promise no tomorrow,
For today will always last
And since each day’s the same way
There’s no longing for the past

So when tomorrow starts without me
Don’t think we’re far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I’m right here in your heart.

Expressions of Gratitude

In everything both great and small, we see the hand of God through various expressions of sympathy you have extended to us.
It is with deepest gratitude that we thank each of you during this most difficult time.

Reflections of a Beautiful Life

(Dec. 17, 1976 – Jun. 19, 2024)

Misty D'Marise Harris was a lively, energetic and personable young lady and suddenly passed away on Wednesday, June 19th, 2024.

Misty was the daughter of Frances J. and James Herndon, biological father Spencer Humphries and stepmother Dorothy Humphries, sister Leslie George. Misty has lived in Arizona for the past thirteen (13) years working as an Early Childhood educator.

Misty was passionate about Fashion, Family and Faith:

Fashion - If you were fortunate to be in the presence of Misty, you would be amazed by her bright colored attire, sparkling jewelry and stiletto shoes. Misty's vibrant fashion sense left a lasting impression on those around her. Her attire not only showcased her unique sense of style but also inspired others to embrace their own individuality and express themselves through fashion. Misty's passion for fashion was contagious, and she had a remarkable ability to uplift and empower those who crossed her path. She loved shopping with a keen eye for unique choices.

Family – Misty had a deep and intense love for her family especially her mother! They were extremely close and spent numerous hours talking, sharing, and planning. She was surrounded by loving-caring aunts, uncles and most of all, she valued her relationship with her sisters and cousins. A special relationship existed between her and her Godmother, Kimily McGuine, and she never missed an opportunity, holiday or special occasion to express her love and appreciation for her.

Faith – Misty had strong faith and hope in her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!! She joined New Zion Baptist Church (Henrietta, NC) at an early age and faithfully attended until she relocated to Greensboro for education and to pursue her career and ultimately moved to Arizona. With every relocation, she always found a place of worship. While living in Arizona, she attended Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church and participated in the Hospitality Ministry. Also, she had a soft spot for working with children and dedicated herself to improving the lives of many underprivileged young people.

Misty is survived by her parents Frances and James Herndon (Lincolnton, NC), Spencer and Dorothy Humphries (Gaffney, SC), sister Leslie George (Spartanburg, SC), Godmother Kimily McGuine (Charlotte, NC), special friend Jay Rodriguez (Chandler, AZ) and a host of cousins and very dear friends.

She was preceded in death by her sister Tracy Humphries, grandparents Frances B. and Briver Harris, Alta and Williams Humphries, Virginia and Robert Herndon, aunts and uncles who will welcome her into heaven.

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS
