

The family of George Leon Zinnerman
Expressions of Gratitude

In everything both great and small, we see the hand of God through various expressions of sympathy you have extended to us. It is with deepest gratitude that we thank each of you during this most difficult time.

Service of Comfort Provided by:
Ebony & White's Funeral Service, Inc.
1139 E. Pine Street | Lincolnton, NC 28093 | Phone: 704-732-1041
“Dedicated To Those We Serve”

Celebrating The Life And Legacy Of
Mr. George Leon Zinnerman

Earthly Life
September 12th, 1933

Eternal Life
September 1st, 2024

Saturday, September 7, 2024
1:00 p.m.

Rock Hill United Methodist Church
7603 Old Plank Road
Stanley, North Carolina
Reverend Dana Pate, Pastor

His Journey

George Leon Zinnerman, on September 1, 2024, God saw that you were tired and Weak, so He did what was best. He put His arms around you and whispered, “Come home and rest.”

George was born on September 12, 1933, in Hamlet, North Carolina to the late Alexander Zinnerman and Frances Conwell-Zinnerman.

George was educated in Richmond County, North Carolina. George left North Carolina to pursue his career through several printing firms in the Chicago, Illinois area until retirement. George returned to North Carolina in 1993.

George was actively involved in the Gaston Literacy Council from 1995-1997and served on the Board of Directors from 1996-1997.

George joined Rock Hill United Methodist Church in 1995. George held various offices and ministries within the church including, but not limited to President of the United Methodist Men, Member of the Vocal Choir, Trustee and member of various community ministries.

George was a proud and faithful Trustee of Tucker’s Grove Camp meeting for many years. Even during his illness, he continued to perform his Trustee duties.

George favorite hobby was gardening and sharing the fruits of his labor with his church family and friends. George was an avid Chicago Bulls, Bears and Cubs fan. He loved to talk to his friends on game day. George had a flare for fashion. He was always dressed to “NINE”. George enriched the lives of many people and leaves a legacy of hope, faith and service. He wanted this especially for his family which he dearly loved very much.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Thomas Zinnerman and his sisters, Della Mitchell and Jerline Zinnerman David.

George’s memories are cherished by the love of his life, his loving wife and best friend for 43 years, Willie Mae Gibson-Zinnerman; a son, Robert (Jan) Zinnerman of San Jose, CA; two daughters, Harriet Zinnerman-Fitzgerald of Johnson, City, TN; Maryann Zinnerman of Jamaica, NY; four sisters, Gladys (Roy) Bell of Schaumburg, IL; Betty Smitherman of Evanston, IL; Sallie Thomas of Murfreesboro, TN; Frances (Michael) Gustine of Rockingham, NC; two grandchildren, Shayla Fitzgerald of TN; Patrick Fitzgerald of SC; two great grandchildren, Javion and Linux of TN; a host of nieces, nephews, special niece and nephew, Necodia and Nathan Stroud, cousins and friends.

ORDER OF SERVICE

Officiating Minister: Reverend Fredrick Bowman

Prelude

Processional

Receiving of Family & Friends

Ministers & Family

12:00 Noon – 1:00 P.M.

Gospel Images/Lowesville Community Choir

Call to Worship

Hymn of Praise

Rev. Fredrick Bowman

“Because He Lives” Page 364

Choir

Scripture Reading

Old Testament

New Testament

Prayer of Comfort

Reflection/Selection

Rev. Torey Haynes

Rev. Sylvia Lowery

Rev. Shirley Canty

Rev. J. L. McCullers

Friendship Baptist Church, Rockingham, NC

Obituary Reading

Musical Selection

Ms. Brenda Link

Marsha Cox, Angie Walden, Althea Downs

Remarks “Please respect a 2 minute time frame”

Special Remarks

Family Acknowledgement

Family & Friends

“Church/Tucker’s Grove Campground”

Mr. Robert Zinnerman, Son

Mr. Lewis McLean

Musical Selection

Eulogy

Mr. Dwayne Koonce

Rev. Dana Pate

Musical Selection

Recessional Selection

Gospel Images/Lowesville Community Choir

“Going Up Yonder”

Choir

Committal/Interment
Rock Hill/Gold Hill Cemetery
Stanley, North Carolina

Floral Bearers
Nieces

Pall Bearers
Nephews