A Glimpse at the Life of Mrs. Corean Hogue Eskridge

"The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away."
Psalm 90:10

Ms. Corean Hogue Eskridge was born on March 4, 1934, to the late Nathaniel Dewberry and Faithia Jane Boyd Hopper in Cleveland County, North Carolina. She transitioned into the arms of the Lord on Saturday, September 21, 2024, at Springs of Catawba, Hickory, North Carolina.

Corean attended public school in Cleveland County, North Carolina. She retired from Century Furniture Company. She was a member of Shekinah Glory Ministry.

Corean was very quiet, independent and humble. Her greatest joy was reading her Bible. She was a prayer warrior. She loved to bake and go shopping at her favorite Department Store (Belk). She could grow the prettiest flowers. Her television shows that she watched were always the religious channel. Corean was a loving mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister-in-law, aunt and friend. Evidence of her kindness were the many deeds she did to assist her family

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two sons, Larry Joe Eskridge and Thomas Eskridge; two nieces, Trina Hogue and Fasie Prue; and one nephew, Christopher Hogue.

Those left to cherish fond and loving memories in the hearts of her children: John Henry Eskridge (Mary), Roger Dale Eskridge (Katherine) all of Hickory, North Carolina; Alton Eugene Eskridge of Newton, North Carolina; De-Shawn Eskridge (Carlee) of Durham, North Carolina; Patricia Jane Eskridge and Brenda Fay Eskridge both of Hickory, North Carolina; fifteen grandchildren, thirty-nine great grandchildren, ten great-great grandchildren; two nephews, Jacob Hogue of Atlanta, Georgia; Jeffery Norman of Brevard, North Carolina. her sister-in-law, Lois Hogue of Cherryville, North Carolina.
