

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."

*Remember the best times,
the laughter, the song.*

The good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes we're together again.

In Gratitude

The family would like to extend our gratitude for your expressions of sympathy, the demonstrations of love, and the evidence of your care, prayers, and presence.

May God bless each of you!

OBITUARY

Mr. Donald Lattimore was the beloved son of the late James Roseboro and Pearl Webber Roseboro. He was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina on March 23, 1960.

Donald transitioned on Thursday, October 31, 2024, at Atrium Health - Lincoln, Lincolnton, North Carolina.

He received his formal education at East Lincoln High School.

Donald was affectionately called Billy. He was known to his family and friends as Billy. He worked hard during his life; he was a handy man at heart. He enjoyed fishing and gardening. He was an outdoor person. Billy truly loved his dog "Pookie". His favorite song was "Could Have Been Me" by the Three Blind Boys.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his nephew, Letterian Lipscomb, Jr., six uncles and four aunts.

Those left to cherish precious memories are three brothers, Frankie Lattimore (Brynda) of Lincolnton, NC; Jerry Lattimore, Larry Lattimore of Peakskin, NY; Leonard Roseboro of Crouse, NC; three sisters, Pearl Little of Lincolnton, NC; Jacqueline Lipscomb (Letterian) of Gastonia, NC; Joanne Lattimore of Hartford, CT; his companion, Elizabeth Ann York of Lincolnton, NC; nine nieces, Crystal Lattimore, Revonda Anderson, Mia Anderson, Kassidy Lattimore, LaShonda Herndon, Brittany Herndon, Nasya Little, LaTrish Little, Haliyah Lipscomb; two nephews, James Lipscomb and Devon Lattimore and a host of cousins and friends.
