Life Reflections

Harvey Jene Bines was born to the late Nelson Bines and Pearline Scott Bines in Cleveland County, North Carolina on October 16, 1950. He moved from his earthly house to eternity on Wednesday, February 5, 2025.

He attended public school in Cleveland County, North Carolina. He retired from Century Furniture in Hickory, North Carolina.

Harvey Jene found enjoyment in riding his lawn mower, fishing, hunting and gardening. He liked to watch old Westerns and dancing with his granddaughter. His grands and great grands held a special place in his heart. He loved family, his sisters and brothers were dear to him. He was quiet and humble. He was an avid Chiefs fan.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by six siblings, Henry, Billy, Ezell, Isaiah, Herman Bines and Alberta Bines Watkins.

He leaves fond and loving memories in the hearts of his loving and devoted wife of forty here years, Bennie Phelps Bines of the home; three daughters, Victoria B. Lattimore (Chad), Melinda Bines, Trina Bines all of Lincolnton, NC; one brother, Steve Bines of Statesville, NC; four sisters, Inez Bines of Greensboro, NC; Diane B. Phelps, Marcella B. Odom, Barbara Clark all of Statesville, NC; six grandchildren, Adriana Lattimore, Joshua Lattimore, Justin Lattimore, Kendall Bines, Chancellor Smith-Bines, Makayla Littlejohn; three great grandchildren, Ryleigh Currence, Parrish Littlejohn, Pierre Littlejohn, a host of nieces, Nephews, cousins and friends.
