

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away,
her journey just begun
Life holds so many facets.
this earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting
from the sorrows and the tears.
In a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days or years.
Think how she must be wishing
that we could know today,
How nothing but our sadness,
can really pass away,
And think of her as living
in the hearts of those she touched.
For nothing loved is ever lost
and she was loved so much.*

In Gratitude

In everything both great and small,
we see the hand of God
through various expressions of sympathy you have extended to us.
It is with deepest gratitude that we thank each of you during this most difficult time.

Eileen Wallace Sheppard was born in Williamsburg, Virginia on October 30, 1950 to the late Charles Henry Wallace, Jr. and Gertrude Louise Bartlett Wallace. She departed this earthly life on Monday, March 24, 2025 at Peak Resources-Gastonia.

She served her church as Administrative Assistant for several years until her health declined. She was active with the Women's Sunday School and Women's Missionary Union.

Eileen was employed at Wanzl North American and retired after thirty three years of service. She was an Elections Precinct Official, she served as a Democrat Judge. She was also a Notary.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Erica Seandell Sheppard and seven siblings, Charlina W. Harris, Gertrude Louise W. Green, Fredrick Douglas Wallace, Ernest Leon Wallace and Carolyn Berdenett Wallace, Theodore Wallace and Ethel Mae Wallace.

Eileen leaves fond and loving memories in the hearts of her husband of 48 years, Robert Sheppard of the home; son, Julius Alexander Rendleman of Stanley, NC; one brother, James Aaron Wallace (Carolyn) of Leesburg, GA; one sister, Margaret Peggy Wallace of Williamsburg, VA; three granddaughters, Jaiden Rendleman, Skylar Rendleman, Camilah Rendleman; three sisters-in-law, Pauline Thompson, Lizzie Smith and Rosa Sheppard all of Gastonia, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
