

ORDER OF SERVICE

Officiating Minister, Rev. Dr. Donald Gray, Pastor
Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, Catawba, North Carolina

Prelude
Processional	Ministers & Family
Receiving of Family & Friends	2:00 P.M. – 3:00 P.M.
Call to Worship	Rev. Dr. Donald Gray
Selection	Elder Genetta Dobbins
Old Testament Reading	Apostle Christina Glenn-Williams
New Testament Reading	Minister Teresa Brooks
Prayer of Comfort	Apostle Dorothy Matthews
Selection	Minister Shekeyla' Caldwell
Obituary Reading	Linda Clark
Resolution
Reflections	Kentrail Clark & Children
Selection	Pastor Deanna Daniel
Eulogy	Pastor Bradley Moss
Closing Song	Mr. Earl Vernon
Recessional

Committal/Interment
St. James United Methodist Church Cemetery
Denver, North Carolina

Floral Bearers
Cousins and Friends

Pall Bearers
Cousin and Friends

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Kenneth Lee Clark, Jr. wishes to express our sincere thanks and gratitude for the many comforting acts of kindness and sympathy shown during the passing of our loved one.

Celebration of Life MR. Kenneth Lee Clark, Jr.

Saturday, July 19, 2025
3:00 p.m.

St. James United Methodist Church
Denver, North Carolina

Rev. Marcus J. Singleton, Pastor
Pastor Bradley Moss, Eulogist

Service of Comfort Provided by:
Ebony & White's Funeral Service, Inc.
1139 E. Pine Street | Lincolnton, NC 28093
Phone: 704-732-1041
"Dedicated To Those We Serve"
www.ebonyandwhitesfuneralserviceinc.com

Kenneth Lee Clark, Jr. departed this life on Tuesday July 8, 2025, at Grand Strand Medical Center in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. He was born in Catawba County, North Carolina on April 27, 1974, to Patricia Shuford Clark and the late Kenneth Lee Clark, Sr.

He attended public school in Catawba County, North Carolina and graduated from Bunker Hill High School. He attended Fruit of the Spirit Ministries LLC, Inc. and worked at Brose. He was employed there for six and a half years.

Kenny was a compassionate individual who was very influential in his younger brother's life. A gentleman, who had come into his own, loved his children, adored his grandbaby and spending time with Krista his fiancé. He desired to learn and be closer to his extended family. In his personal desire, he wanted to be more health conscious. Kenny made flavored sea moss gel which he shared with others. His favorite color was blue.

Music was his lifeline, aka DJ Kraz. He worked at Peggy's Place in Gaffney and Sideline. Kenny did private events as well and was known to create his own mixes and recordings. He was a DJ on Power 98 for a stint.

Kenny enjoyed being on the open highway. Having lived in Connecticut in early years, he always enjoyed visiting there. Myrtle Beach was his "go to" place which he frequented two to three times per year. He had an enthusiasm for motorcycles. He was a member of the Dynasty Motorcycle Club. He was mechanically inclined and enjoyed driving and working on cars. Like his dad, his choice of a vehicle had to be a Chevrolet or GMC. Kenny will truly be missed by those who love him.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his grandparents, Harry Lee Clark, Alma Thompson Clark, Catherine Shuford, Bennell Huitt, Frances and Marvin Shuford.

Those left to cherish fond and loving memories are his children, Kennedy Williams of Miami, FL; Aquaya Clark of Spartanburg, SC; Cameron Clark of Gaffney, SC; his granddaughter, Adrienne Jeter; mother, Patricia Shuford Clark of Gaffney, SC; one brother, Kentrail Clark of Gaffney, SC; one niece, Ariana; step-father, Terry Dawkins, Sr.; step-brother, Terry Dawkins, Jr.; two step-sisters, Bernice Dawkins, Shakeia (Rodney) Davidson; fiancé, Krista Watson of Inman, SC; great aunt, Betty Neal Shuford, Godmother, Michelle Wiley; a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, co-workers and friends.

