Life Reflections

Dorothy Rozella Starr Wilson, affectionately known as Rozella, was born on September 2, 1944 in Gaston County, North Carolina to the late Wesley and Delzora Carson Starr. She was the youngest of twelve siblings. She was raised in a home filled with love, strength and deeply rooted family values.

Rozella accepted Christ at an early age and became a devoted member of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church. While her health was good she served faithfully on various auxiliaries. Later in life when her health began to decline, her faith remained unwavering.

She was a proud graduate of John Chavis High School, Class of 1962. Rozella was married thirty seven years to the late Josephus Wilson. Rozella's exceptional sewing skills blossomed into a fulfilling career as a seamstress.

Rozella found joy in spending time with loved ones, crocheting, nurturing her flowers and attending her adult day center. She enjoyed preparing delicious home cooked meals. Her sweet potato pie and pineapple cakes were especially legendary.

Rozella was the mother of four children, Nevin Wilson, the late Wesley Wilson (Trudie), Teron Wilson (Winter), Shineet Wilson-Myers and her grandson, Jowan Wilson (Jana) who was raised in the home.

In addition to her children, Rozella leaves behind a lasting legacy in her grandchildren, Jamie, Jasmine, Stacey, Brittany, Micah, Damion, Janeva, Jayla, Jaelyn, Summer and Channel; her great grandchildren, Jasean, Jaliyah, Jaleyce, Jaden, Jalyssa, Jaylee, Jayla, Zuri, Jurnee, Marion, Josiah, Joseigh and Amari.

She is also survived by her loving sister, Mamie Lee Lipscomb (Tommie Lee), sisters-in-law, Minister Doris Jean Wilson, Rev. Gwen Cobb and Doretha Barber; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

Rozella lived a life of faith, dignity, elegance and grace. Her legacy will forever be etched in the hearts of those who knew her. Even though she will be deeply missed, her memory will never fade and her spirit will live on eternally.
