Life Reflections

Lily Lorene Friday Price was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina on February 22, 1954, to the late Thomas Friday and Ella Poston Friday. She departed her earthly house on Thursday, October 30, 2025, at Atrium Health-Lincoln, Lincoln, North Carolina.

Lily received her education at Hunter Huss High School. She retired from Delta Apparel after numerous years of employment as an Inspector.

Lily was a faithful member at the former Second Baptist Church. She was presently attending Moore's Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church prior to her illness.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, James Lee Price and eight siblings.

Lily leaves to cherish fond and loving memories in the hearts of her sons, Omar Demacio Friday, James Vernard (a special daughter, Devonda) Friday all of Lincoln, North Carolina; Jonathan Lee Friday of Alexandria, Virginia; three grandchildren, James J'diah (Ashley) Price-Friday, Roneshia Lanette Foster, Olivia Grace Friday; one great grandson, Kinstyn Price-Friday, several loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Our Mother was a good woman. She possessed a blessedness and a special power. A blessedness and power to nurture, to heal, to protect, to pray for and guide every loved one she held dear. She was a strong woman. And while we were all amazed at her resiliency, we were also mindful of her vulnerabilities and made it our mission to protect her at all times.

To Mama:

As your sons, we thank you for your extraordinary strength, devotion and nurturing spirit that impacted our lives and extended far beyond your immediate family. You are a guiding light for the wider family—creating a haven for all when needed. Your kindness, wisdom, and unwavering commitment to those you love, is invaluable. Your legacy is one of deep compassion and unconditional love, and will be missed by all whose lives you touched.

Love,
Your boys: Omar, James and Jonathan
