Acknowledgements

The family of Theodosia Cornelia Wilson Moore would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude for the many acts of love, kindness, and support shown to us during this difficult time.

Special thanks to Atrium Health-Lincoln, Northstate Medical Group, Bayada Home Health, Centerwell Home Health, Family and Friends for your love, care and support.

She Is Still Here

She was a soft place in a loud world, voice that never rushed, hands that knew how to comfort, without ever asking why. Her kindness lived in the smallest moment a smile held a second longer, A warmth that made you feel seen, a love that asked for nothing in return. Though death has carried her beyond what our eyes can reach, It could not take her spirit, or loosen her hold on our hearts. She lives in the stories we tell, in the lessons she left behind, In the quiet strength she planted, inside each one of us. When we miss her, we need only listen , to the love she taught us to give, to the grace she showed us how to keep. She is gone. She has simply changed form -- from someone we could hold, To someone we carry forever.
