

In honor of Jimmy's love for the Dallas Cowboys, Giles Stewart reached out to wide receiver CeeDee Lamb, who shared the following message with the family:

Hey Giles, I really appreciate you reaching out to me, man. First off, I'm truly sorry for your loss. Losing someone like Mack Daddy, especially a loyal fan, hits deep. My thoughts and prayers are with you, his family, and everyone who loved him. It means a lot that you invited me—that kind of love and support never goes unnoticed. I wish I could be there in person to pay my respects, but just know I'm with y'all in spirit. Please give my condolences to his family and let them know how much we appreciate the love he had for the team.

Rest Easy, Mack Daddy

Life Reflections

JAMES HOUSTON COBB, JR.

James Houston Cobb, Jr. was born on August 22, 1966 to Virginia Ann Poston Cobb and the late James Houston Cobb, Sr. in Lincoln County, North Carolina.

An Angel was dispatched to his sister's home on Monday, March 23, 2026 to bring one of his children home where James had slept away peacefully.

Jimmy graduated from Lincoln High School, Class of 1986. He was employed at Hardee's for twenty five years.

He was affectionately known by many as Jimmy Mack, Little Jimmy, Dump, Mack Daddy, and Po Boy.

Jimmy was known for his friendly spirit, loving heart and kind nature. He found great joy in traveling with his road buddy, Steve Littlejohn, especially to attend ball games. If anyone had a favorite team, it was Jimmy. He proudly supported the Dallas Cowboys and the North Carolina Tar heels. Jimmy will be dearly missed by his family, the Pine Street community and his Cowboy family.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his grand-parents, Preston Fletcher Cobb, Sr. Artie Farley Cobb, Robert Davis and Annie Davis.

Jimmy leaves fond and loving memories in the hearts of his loving and devoted mother, Virginia Ann Cobb of the home; his twin sisters, Charline Roseboro of Dallas, NC; Darline Cobb of Charleston, SC; step mother, Rev. Gwen Cobb of Lincoln, NC; two step brothers, Clifford (Yvette) Robinson of Lincoln, NC; Kevin (Elithia) Robinson of Vale, NC; his cousin that he considered his brother, Maceo Hopkins, Jr., his special nephew, Bryson Roseboro, four other nephews, three nieces, cousins and friends.
