

LIFE'S JOURNEY

LIFE'S JOURNEY

When I come to the end of the day
 And the sun has set for me
 I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
 Why cry for a soul set free?
 Miss me a little, but not too long
 And not with your head bowed low.
 Remember the love we once shared-
 Miss me, but let me go.
 For this is a journey we all must take
 And each must go alone.
 It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
 A step on the road to HOME.
 When you are lonely and sick at heart
 Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
 In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Izaiyah Jeremiah Wilson was born in Newark, New Jersey on April 17, 2006 to Charles B. Wilson and Sharonda Graham Wilson. He departed this life on April 1, 2026 in Gastonia, North Carolina.

Izaiyah graduated from Lincolnton High School, Class of 2024. He played football and basketball for Lincolnton High. He worked in Food Service at McDonald's.

He was known for his love of sports, his bright spirit, and the energy he brought to everyone around him. He played as a wide receiver in football and a guard in basketball, earning respect and admiration from teammates, coaches, and friends alike. Beyond the athletic talents, he was described as kind, determined, and full of life. He was a young man whose presence could light up a room.

When he resided in New Jersey, he was a member of Focus On Jesus Bible Church.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Oscar Goff, Sr., Virginia Goff. Charles Simmons and one uncle, Anthony J. Goff.

Izaiyah leaves fond and loving memories in the hearts of his parents, Charles B. Wilson and Shondra G. Wison of the home; two brothers, Da'Shaun C, Wilson, Dezmon B. Wilson both of Newark, NJ; five sisters, Amira (Brandi) Stokes of Hickory, NC; Makia Stokes, Destiney Stokes, Mya Stokes all of Gastonia, NC; Izaiyah Wilson of Lincolnton, NC; grandmother, Marilyn Brown of Newark, NJ; one uncle, Oscar (Lawana) Goff, Jr., seven aunts, Casandra Martin, Angie Martin, Toni Martin, Willette Martin, Jeanne Martin, Della (Greg) Hurling, Lauren Graham, god parents, Quincey and Derrin Jackson, Dave and Queeana Thompson, Preston and Nikki Davis, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. His family and friends will sorely miss him.

YOU HAVE LEFT OUR LIVES,
BUT YOU WILL NEVER LEAVE OUR HEARTS.
