

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

by David M. Romano

*When tomorrow starts without me,
and I am not here to see If the sun should rise and find your eyes
all filled with tears for me,
I know how much you love me
as much as I love you.
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.*

*But when tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand That Jesus came and called my name and took me by the hand.
He said my place is ready
in heaven far above,
And that I have to leave behind
all those I dearly love.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.*

REFLECTIONS OF LIFE

Michael Scott Brice entered the world on November 15, 1963, to the late Babe Ruth Brice and Laura Ethel Gibbs Brice. He transitioned peacefully in the comfort of his home on Monday, May 11, 2026.

Michael graduated from Maiden High School and was employed at Null Industries for several years.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two brothers, Doug Brice and Terry Brice.

Those left to cherish fond and loving memories are his loving and devoted wife, Millissa Tillman Brice of the home; two children, Michael Lamar Brice of Raleigh, NC and Keyana La'Shae Brice of Newton, NC; two brothers, Pernell Brice and Rodney Brice (Elisa Brice) both of Newton, NC; two sisters, Sandy Brice of Newton, NC and Sandra Brice of Maiden, NC; along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Michael was very outgoing and enjoyed working on cars. He especially loved his 1969 truck. He was very handy with his hands and enjoyed tinkering with things. Michael was a loving husband, and the Maiden community will surely miss him.
