Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away—
her journey has just begun life holds many facets the Earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost—
And she was loved so much.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed down low Remember the love we once shared. Miss me but. . .let me go.

For this journey we must all take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows with good deeds. Miss me. . .but let me go.

Journey Of Life

Ms. Hattie Louise Odom Mundy was born in Jones County, Georgia, on March 12, 1935, to the late Turner Odom and Willie Louise Farley Odom. She made a peaceful transition on Tuesday, June 16, 2026 in the comfort of her home.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Mr. Sank Mundy, Jr. She was a faithful member of Mt. Beulah UMC, where she served on several committees and was a devoted member of the church choir. She was not only the oldest member of the church but was also affectionately known as the Mother of the Church.

She found great joy in caring for both her indoor and outdoor flowers and was an avid sports fan, especially when it came to cheering on the UNC Tar Heels men's basketball team.

One of her greatest blessings was spending four precious months with her great-great-grandson, Elias, affectionately known as her "BooBoo," who began her fifth generation. Her love for gospel singing—whether at church, at home, during revivals, or at camp meetings—filled her heart with joy. She also cherished attending family reunions, and whether traveling by bus or by car, near or far, every trip was a special occasion.

She never met a stranger. She was known for being feisty, talkative, and never taking any mess from anyone. Her vibrant spirit, warm personality, and love for her family and friends will forever be remembered. Though she will be deeply missed, her legacy will continue to live on through the many lives she touched.

Forever in our hearts, we love and miss you, Ms. Hattie Louise Odom Mundy.

In addition to her parents and beloved husband, she was preceded in death by her son, Nicholas "Nick" Mundy; her daughter, Regina Mundy; her brother, Joe Turner Odom; and her sister, Corine Odom.

Left to cherish her loving memories are her two devoted daughters, Cassandra Smith and Sylvia Mundy, both of Sherrills Ford, North Carolina; one brother, Oscar Odom of Sherrills Ford, North Carolina; two grandchildren, Christopher Huitt (Lekeya) of Statesville, North Carolina, and Nicole Lyerly (Lamont) of Iron Station, North Carolina five great-grandchildren, Aniya Lizardi, Jaciyla Lizardi, Aaliyah Huitt, Jehana Ramseur, and Zavian Huitt; one great-great-grandson, Elias Lizardi; one sister-in-law, Georgia Mae Odom of Sherrills Ford, North Carolina; one goddaughter, Sherri Braden; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends.
