

The Final Voyage

The sails are lowered,
the journey done,
A life of daring, hard-fought, and won.

Through raging storms and quiet seas,
You caught the wind,
you rode the breeze.

No distant shores were unseen,
No heavy hardship stood between.
Your valiant heart and every quest,
And now, at last, you've earned your rest.

The voyage spans beyond the foam.
As the great traveler heads back home.
The stars will guide your spirit grand,
Into a peaceful, gentle land.

LIFE JOURNEY OF LARRY

Larry Douglas Hunter was born in Lincoln County, North Carolina, on November 18, 1951, to the late Johnson B. Hunter and Willie Mae Hill Hunter. He departed this life peacefully on Sunday, July 5, 2026, at Lincolnton Rehabilitation Center in Lincolnton, North Carolina. Larry was united in holy matrimony to the love of his life, Marion Hunter, and together they shared many years of love, devotion, and cherished memories.

Larry was a graduate of Lincolnton High School and honorably served his country in the United States Marine Corps.

When it came to locating Larry, it was never a hard task. He could almost always be found in one of a few familiar places—either in his own yard or a neighbor's yard—doing what he loved most: fixing or building something. Gifted with his hands and generous with his time, Larry became known throughout the community as the "go-to" handyman. Whether it was a small repair or a major project, he was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need.

If he wasn't working with his hands, Larry could often be found at one of his favorite local stores, happily playing the lottery and talking junk with his quick-witted sense of humor. He never met a stranger and had a remarkable gift for making people smile. No matter where you encountered him, Larry had a knack for creating personalized nicknames for those he met, making each person feel seen and remembered. His warm spirit, infectious laughter, and unforgettable personality left a lasting impression on everyone blessed to know him.

In addition to his parents, Larry was preceded in death by two brothers, Johnson B. Hunter, Jr. and Ulysses Hunter; and one sister, Sheila Hunter Finger.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories his devoted wife, Marion Hunter of the home; three children, Clarence Ramseur, Trena Ramseur, and Eric Ramseur, all of Lincolnton, North Carolina; two brothers, Billy (Nelda) Hunter and Michael Hunter, both of Lincolnton, North Carolina; one sister, Robin Anderson of Rutherfordton, North Carolina; ten grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law; a special nephew, Nathaniel (Ashley) Friday; several other loving nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and many dear friends who will forever cherish his memory.
