When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand; The angel said my place was ready in Heaven far above. And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. But when I walked through Heaven's Gate, I felt so much at home, for God looked down, smiled at me tell me "Welcome Home ". So when tomorrow's starts without me, Don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there in your Heart.

Remarks From Husband William White:

I thank God for allowing me to meet an Angel in 2004. When I think of my bride Mary, I think about a virtuous woman. A woman that knows how to keep peace. She knew how to put a smile on someone's face when they are feeling down. Mary really made my life easy because she never would let anything in our home go lacking. I thank God for 15 blessed years as my bride and 3½ years as my best friend. Mary took her role as a daughter, sister, mother, auntie, grandmother and wife very serious. I loved her when she wasn't sick, even more after she took sick.

Love Forever Your Husband, Bill

Benediction

Mrs. Mary C. White was born February 13, 1950 and departed for her heavenly life on July 13, 2023. Mary was the daughter of the late George Alexander McCrorey and Quincie Ivory McCrorey.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her daughter, Sonya F. McCrorey, brothers, Hubert L. McCrorey and Otis L. McCrorey and grandson, Bobby Rashawn McCrorey

She was raised in the Flint Hill and Sunset Park Communities and was educated in the York County Schools. She lived in Florida for years before returning to Rock Hill, South Carolina two years ago.

Mary worked for different Nursing Facilities for many years before she became a Bus Driver for Fort Mill Schools. She had a Passion for taking care of her family and friends, that she started providing care for adults and children, until her own health issues would no longer allow her to give that 100% care she once gave. Her family saw her trying to give even with the health issue she had.

Mary was an avid collector of stuffed teddy bears and had an extensive collection. In her free time, she loves talking on the phone, working in her books, and going on cruises.

Left to cherish her loving memories, her husband, William White, Jr.; sons, Quay McCrorey, Bobby E. McCrorey, LB White; granddaughter, Brittany McCrorey; sisters, Sophia A. Gordon and Quincie M. Moffat both of Rock Hill, SC; brothers, James L. McCrorey of Charlotte, NC, Horace A. McCrorey (Peggy) of Mauldin, SC, Bobby J. McCrorey (Gloria) of Rock Hill, SC and Thomas W. McCrorey (Annette) of Columbia, SC; caregiver for five months, Nancina Moore; sisters-in-law, Devonne Miles (Christopher), Shirley Young, Alesia Coleman, Pamela Daniel, Taquanta Feely (Will), Kiahleigh Hunt (Aaron), Christina Cousar (Don); brothers-in-law, James Young, Jr. (Mischelle), William B. Young (Omeka); a host of nephews, nieces and other relatives and friends.
