The Life & Legacy of Ja'Vonie M. LaBooth "Forever Twelve"

Ja'Vonie M. LaBooth was called to his eternal resting place on November 17, 2023. Ja'Vonie was born November 9, 2011 in Youngstown, Ohio to Ja'Vonne Brown and Jovan LaBooth.

Ja'Vonie attended Rayen Early College Middle School and previously attended Harding Elementary School where he was recognized an honor roll and star academic scholar. He loved going to school, talking on the phone with his friends and playing video games.

Ja'Vonie was an outstanding football player for the Northside Knights from the time he joined the peewee league. He received numerous awards and trophies, including Defensive Player of the Year 2022.

Ja'Vonie loved spending time with his siblings, and always let it be known he was here to protect. He had a generous smile and a robust sense of humor which would light up every room he entered.

Ja'Vonie leaves to cherish his precious memories his beloved parents Ja'Vonne (Nelson) Brown and Jovan LaBooth of Youngstown, his sisters- ennedi and JayLynn Franklin, Jakhira, Jovanna, Janiya, Yaniya, Niamya, Amari and Jo'Elle LaBooth; brothers James Nicholson-Kimbrough, Nathan Franklin, Jovan Jr., Anthony, Javiere, Jaceon and Ryder LaBooth;

His grandparents Clinton Brown, Tracey White-Dodson, Phillis (Marvin) Franklin of Youngstown and Hilton and Delorise Watkins of Cleveland; great grandmother Betty Pullen of Youngstown, along with an expansive score of aunts, uncles and cousins, best friend forever Samantha Parker.

He was greeted at the splendid gates of Heaven by his by siblings Ja'Mire and Emani LaBooth; grandparents Lealer & Rev. Booker T. Brown, Betty Haynes and Heywood Pullen; and uncles Charles Pullen, Booker Jr. and Maurice White.
