The Life & Legacy of Shannon Lyniece Jennings

Shannon Lyniece Jennings, a beacon of light with an infectious energy, passed away peacefully on December 9, 2023, at the age of 40, after a brief season of illness. She was born on June 29, 1983, in Youngstown, Ohio, to her loving father the late Dwayne Croft and Rosalyn Jennings. Shannon's radiant spirit touched the lives of all those who had the privilege of knowing her.

Shannon possessed a boundless enthusiasm for life and had a magnetic charm that captivated everyone around her. Her laughter was contagious, and her willingness to help others knew no bounds. Shannon dedicated her career to the field of healthcare, working as a dedicated Medical Assistant at Real Care. Her compassionate nature and dedication to her patients were evident in everything she did.

A proud resident of Youngstown and graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School, Shannon was deeply devoted to her family. She leaves behind her adoring son, Cato Sly, who was her pride and joy. She was blessed to see him recently walk across the stage as a graduate of Chaney High School. She provided cherished memories for her mother Rosalyn and adorned her siblings, Lichelle, Dionne, Amber, Shayla, Aaron, and Marquis. In truth Shannon loved organizing family gatherings and spending time with those she loved.

Besides her immediate family, she leaves a legacy of love among the vast score of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Her loving presence will continue to guide and inspire the family throughout their remaining lives.

She was authentic & genuine in all her encounters and loved to bring people together. This birthed her vision to become the owner & operator of Tropical Events, as an event planner with a keen eye for attention to detail, opulence, and entertainment. Highly organized, she could execute special events quickly.

Shannon's zest for life was truly contagious, and she had an undeniable impact on the lives of those around her. She leaves behind a void that can never be filled, but her memory will forever live on in the hearts of her family, friends, and colleagues.

Although Shannon's physical presence may no longer be with us, her spirit will forever live on in our hearts. Let us come together to celebrate the life of this incredible woman who brought such brightness and warmth to our lives. Shannon Lyniece Jennings, you will be deeply missed but never forgotten. Rest in eternal peace, dear Shannon.

Lovingly shared by the Family
