

In Good Times/God's Time

Life can seem an endless maze,
The twists and turns, lulls and delays,
But things always fall into place...
In Good Times/God's Time

Friends will sometimes go away.
Some may disappoint or others betray,
But new ones will come to stay...
In Good Times/God's Time.

The hurt of getting something wrong,
And the lesson it often brings along
Are there, you see, to make you strong...
In Good Times/God's Time.

Kindness freely given away,
Unnoticed now, will somehow find its way
Back to you and come to stay...
In Good Times/God's Time

Efforts seem not to pay to plan?
Forge on friend, doing the best you can.
Fortune will find the deserving man...
In Good Times/God's Time.

Life can be tough, there's no doubt,
But hope is the thing we can't do without.
Right things with joy will come about...
In Good Times/God's Time

Margo's Smile

A smile to cheer you to you and me
The cost is nothing – it's given free
It comforts the weary – gladdens the sad
Consoles those in trouble – good or bad
To rich and poor – beggar or thief
It's free to all of any belief.
A natural gesture of young and old
Cheers on the faint – disarms the bold
Unlike most blessings for which we pray
It is one thing we keep when we give it away.

The Life & Legacy of Margo Smith

Margo Smith peacefully departed from this world on January 7, 2024, after a valiant fight against the strongholds of addiction. Margo was born on March 22, 1983, to the union of the late Marcus Sr. and Esther C. Chambers Smith in Youngstown. She was a cherished daughter, niece, aunt, and cousin leaving behind a legacy of resilience, and an unforgettable smile.

Margo was a graduate of Chaney High School, after briefly attending Ursuline. She possessed a free-spirited nature that captivated those around her. She had a zest for life that was infectious, and her vibrant personality left an indelible mark on those she encountered. Margo's warm and beautiful smile reflected her genuine kindness and brought joy to those who knew her.

We remember her for the strength and courage she displayed throughout her arduous journey. While she faced personal battles with addiction, she never let them define her. Margo fought tirelessly, displaying unwavering determination to overcome the challenges that life presented her. She was loved, despite these challenges, unconditionally by her family.

Margo Smith will be fondly remembered by her mother, Esther C. Smith; uncle Lewis W. Macklin Sr.; aunt Jackie Chambers; niece, Ladajsha Smith; and nephews Brian Smith and Marqualyn Spencer. Margo also shared a remarkable and unbreakable bond with her special friend, Jim Thomson, who supported her through thick and thin. It should be noted that the scores of loved ones and friends who will miss Margo are infinite.

Embracing Margo upon her final destination were her father Marcus Sr., brother Marcus Jr., grandparents James Sr. & Edna Macklin Chambers, Adolph & Thelma Lee Blount Smith; uncles Rev. Marvin Smith, Marvin Chambers Sr, James "Bo Boy" Chambers; and cousins Marvin "Cooley" Chambers Jr., Dion Williams, and Richard Wright.

Margo Smith's remarkable spirit and infectious laughter will forever be etched in our hearts. Though her passing leaves an immense void in our lives, we find solace in knowing that she is finally at peace. Margo will be Forever Loved, Forever Missed, Forever Remembered. May her beautiful soul find rest in eternal serenity.

Lovingly Shared By Her Family
