

I've Change My Address
 I've changed my address to Heaven
 I've crossed the Great Divide.
 I know there's no sorrow or crying,
 Because I've reached the other side.
 I am so happy to be here,
 for the Lord Himself I see.
 I've changed my address to Heaven,
 I bid this world goodbye.
 I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
 I have no burdens or heartaches
 And from tears I am now free.
 I've changed my address to Heaven,
 I'm safe forevermore.
 For the Lord built a mansion
 And my name is on the door.
 You can find us walking together,
 For where He is, I'll always be.
 I've changed my address to Heaven,
 That's the place you'll find me.

The Life & Legacy of Renne L. Smith

Renne Lenelle Smith departed this world on January 10, 2024, at the age of 63, in the Cleveland Clinic. She was born on February 21, 1960, in Youngstown, OH, to the union of Lock and Catherine Charlton.

She was a hardworking individual who dedicated her life to the noble profession of home health aide providing direct care services to those experiencing frail health.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Renne had many joys in life. She had an insatiable love for bingo and would often spend her evenings competing with friends, savoring every moment of excitement and camaraderie.

Renne also had a refined palate and took great pleasure in indulging in dining experiences. Her ultimate weakness was succulent ribs paired with creamy, flavorful mac & cheese. These culinary delights brought her immense satisfaction and pleasure. Music was an essential part of Renne's life, as she wholeheartedly embraced every genre. From soulful melodies to head-bobbing beats, she found solace and peace in the power of music.

Renne was a fiercely protective and devoted family woman. Her sons Lorin Charlton, Chris Leon Smith and Curtis Charlton, along with her stepchildren Terry Lee and Sherri Lee, held a special place in her heart, and she took immense pride in his accomplishments. Her 25 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren brought her so much joy, and she found infinite happiness in showering them with love and affection.

In her leisure time, Renne was an avid supporter of the Pittsburgh Steelers, proudly donning the team colors to cheer them on. Additionally, she found solace in the retail therapy that accompanied her shopping excursions. With no filters, Renne fearlessly spoke her mind, imparting her thoughts and opinions without hesitation.

Renne's legacy will be forged by her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Additionally, she will be deeply missed but lovingly remembered by her sisters Lowrine Charlton, Devita Charlton, Vercynore West, Minnie Charlton, Linda Weaver, Sandra Carey, and Sherry Ann Jackson; and brother Van Young. Renne's presence will forever be felt in the hearts of her loved ones.

Renne was welcomed at the gates of Heaven by her parents; husband Curtis Smith, Sr.; daughter Jamie Charlton; sons Lawrence Neal Charlton & Gerjuan Allan Charlton and brother Ricky Charlton.
