

Words of Appreciation From The Minion Family

The Minion Family wishes to thank the community for the intentional acts of love & outpouring of kindness which has been extended during this time. The family has been sustained by the compassionate ministries of prayer, peace, and presence during this time of great loss.

As we mourn the loss of our beloved father, we find solace in the memories we shared and the lessons he taught. His kindness, wisdom, and ability to see the best in everyone will never be forgotten. He leaves behind a legacy of love and inspiration that will continue to guide us on our journey.

John 14:1-3 "Don't let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me. There is more than enough room in my Father's home. If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am."

The Life & Legacy of Mason Mint Minion

Mason Mint Minion, age 75, peacefully departed this world on January 15, 2024, at the Grady Memorial Hospital in Atlanta GA. age of 75. Born on October 2, 1948, in the city of Youngstown, Ohio, Mason was the beloved son of Joe Marlowe and Sallie Minion. He was also reared and nurtured by Mint Mason who was a constant presence in his life.

Though Mason's journey in education led him to obtain a high diploma from South High School. His wisdom extended far beyond the classroom. Throughout his life, Mason was known for his kind heart and unwavering commitment towards others.

He was a dedicated laborer in the construction industry, employed by the Ohio Labor Union, where he consistently displayed his strong work ethic and passion for his craft. He was employed by Turner Construction until his retirement.

He enjoyed sharing and telling great stories, listening to old school music, and making others laugh. He loved the Marta Train, Atlanta's public transit, where he socialized and met others. Never a stranger, he was considered a friend to all who encountered him.

Mason is survived by his loving sons, James Minion of Youngstown and Joseph Minion of Harlem NY, who will forever cherish the memories of their father's guidance, love, and support. His legacy will continue to live on through them and their own endeavors. He also leaves a score of nieces, nephews, and cousins that span several generations in the Atlanta, Columbus and Youngstown areas.
