A Message to Coley Tha Gift

We never could've imagined that the last time was the last time. Replaying memories of when you were here, and everything was just fine.

From the last hug, to those last "I love you's", we never thought we would shed tears today from missing you too. Too many what ifs, so many if only's. Too many "We should've" and too many "We could've".

Praying your kids feel your presence in the moments whenever they get lonely; And that your brothers and sisters know how much you loved them and that they were your closest homies.

Your family will miss you at the family gatherings and times you stopped by for no reason. You will forever be missed Coley, by everyone here, not just today but in every moment and every season.

Lovingly shared by the family
