

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace be thine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

The Life & Legacy of Deaconess Christine White

Deaconess Christine White, 91 of Youngstown, OH, transitioned peacefully to eternal life on Sunday, May 18, 2024, surrounded by family. Christine White was born on March 21, 1933, in Birmingham, Alabama. She was the daughter of Roosevelt and Hattie Peterson who preceded her in death along with her siblings Roosevelt Peterson Jr., Lillie Peterson Sharp and Albert H. Peterson.

Christine was a graduate of Miles College in Birmingham, Alabama. She taught in the Youngstown City School system for over 30 years and retired in 1991. Over the years she was involved in several Church and community organizations. She was also a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority as well as the Youngstown Business and Professional Women's organization.

Throughout her life, Christine showed love, kindness, and support to all she knew. As an avid proponent of education, she loved teaching Sunday School, attending noon-day prayer service and Bible Study. She served the Lord in other capacities including:

She leaves to mourn her passing yet celebrate her victory: her loving husband Deacon James L. White, her son Warren (Wanda) L. White, her sister, Helen Peterson Cooper, granddaughter Andrea White, and bonus granddaughters Jessica and Jasmine Hillian. Additionally, she leaves her sister-in love Della (Ernest) Jones, nephews Anthony Hardy (Evette), Clifton (Vanessa) White and niece Adrienne (Damon) Bryd, a cadre of cousins and long-time special friends; Lovie Mickel, Denise Warren, and Bina McCary.
