

Gratitude from the Muhammad Family

The family of Najeebah A. Muhammad-Butler wishes to express heartfelt appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown to them during this time of sorrow. May God bless you for your thoughtfulness.

Loving shared by the Family

Ministry and After-Care
Transitional Arrangements Entrusted To

J.E. Washington Funeral Services
2234 Glenwood Ave. ☞ Youngstown, OH 44511
(330) 782.8500

J.E. WASHINGTON
FUNERAL SERVICES, INC.

MONDAY, JUNE 17, 2024
CALLING HOURS 10:00AM
FUNERAL SERVICE 11:00AM
JAYLEX EVENT CENTER
2110 GLENWOOD AVE.
YOUNGSTOWN, OH 44511

Celebrating the life of

Najeebah Muhammad- Butler
1968 - 2024

Order of Service

Officiating Clergy Rev. Dr. Lewis W. Macklin II

Final viewing

Prayer of comfort Evag. Doris Collins- Leonard

Sacred Text Reading

Music Ministry Sis. Gail Nevels Stringer

Selected Tributes

The Life & Legacy of Najeebah Yamin Muhammad

Music Ministry Sis. Gail Nevels Stringer

Eulogy Pastor Macklin

Committal

Cortege & Recessional

Tod Homestead Cemetery

Casket Bearers ~ Nephews

Omar Muhammad Mutaal Muhammad

Omandre Muhammad Kamryn Muhammad

Malik Muhammad Mutaal Muhammad III

Qasim Muhammad Tahj Muhammad

Omar Reynolds

Floral Bearers – Nieces

Tariya Scott Zaniya Muhammad

Yamin Muhammad Anissa Casey

Shanay Brown

The Life & Legacy of Najeebah A. Muhammad-Butler

In the embrace of the warm Ohio sun, on April 27, 1968, a beautiful soul named Najeebah A. Muhammad-Butler came into this world in Warren, OH born to the union of Mutaal Muhammad Sr. and Arifah Muhammad. On June 8, 2024, Najeebah peacefully transitioned from this earthly realm, leaving cherished memories and a profound impact.

Najeebah was a proud alumna of the Rayen School and was a member of the Popular Demand Class of 87. She played junior varsity basketball, volleyball and track during her scholastic experience. She continued her scholarly pursuits at State University of West Georgia in I and Wake Technical Community College in Raleigh, North Carolina. Najeebah took pride in herself and all that she put her heart and hands into. She would articulate her thoughts and would engage in respectful discourse. She loved shades of pink and purples with represents warmth, passion and positivity which reflect her kind heart.

By profession and passion, Najeebah was a certified community health care and social worker; she was a proud member of the National Association of Social Workers. She served as a behavioral specialist with the Family Ties. She then became a social service specialist & lead worker for the Clayton County Department of Family & Children Services and was promoted to supervisor in the resource department. Najeebah was recognized for her community engagement. She received acknowledgement of her work by the State of Georgia Department of Human Services' Advocate Award in 2013 among other citations. In 2017, Najeebah returned to the Mahoning Valley and was integral to Alta Behavioral Healthcare agency working as a certified community health worker. She co-founded the Baby Bump Program at Alta Behavioral.

Najeebah was an active participant of the American Pool Association and its Northeast Ohio League. She served as captain of the 8 Ball Pool Team and played 9 Ball, which are games of billiards. It cannot be emphasized enough regarding her love for the Pittsburgh Steelers. She was a die-hard supporter of the "Black & Yellow!"

Najeebah leaves to cherish her memory, her mother; brothers Omar (Nicole) Muhammad and Mutaal (Anaesha) Muhammad Jr., and sisters Carmen Jones and Chevonne (Aaron) Parks-Williams; grandparents Johnny Jenkins and Betsy Folmar-Jenkins. To uphold her enduring legacy, Najeebah leaves a score of nieces and nephews, which include a special niece Tariya Scott who was always at her side, and a host of additional relatives and friends.

Najeebah had an unquestionable love for God and an unshakeable faith in Him. She completed a good work in the earth and is now seated among the ancestors. As she entered paradise, she was welcomed by her father Mutaal Muhammad and brother Abdul Muhammad, both who preceded her into eternity.

Lovingly shared by the family