

With Gratitude from the Wesley Family

The family of Veronica extends its appreciation for every intentional act of love & kindness extended to them during this season. Hebrews 6:10 declares in part, “For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which you have shown toward His name, in that ye have ministered to the saints.” May God bless you richly.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free!*

*Miss me a little, but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go!*

*For this a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.*

The Life & Legacy of Veronica Lynn Wesley

Veronica Lynn Wesley answered the call to enter eternity on June 14, 2024, at Select Specialty Hospital after an extended illness. She was born on October 12, 1965, in Youngstown, to the former Lucille Traylor and Lewis Wesley Sr.

Despite facing various challenges, Veronica's warm and kind-hearted nature touched the lives of those around her. Veronica faced each day with courage and grace, a true testament to her strength. Through the winds of change and the trials of life, Veronica's indomitable spirit shone brightly, a testament to her unwavering strength. In moments of joy and sorrow, she remained a pillar of resilience and grace, leaving an eternal imprint on the hearts of all who knew her.

Veronica's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew her. She will be lovingly remembered by her mother Lucille Bebbs and children Gregory Wright, Marvin Spivey Jr., Deon Spivey and Wykeia Spivey. Her siblings Cheryl (George) Traylor-Cowans, Lynette Wesley and Robert Bebbs III will cherish the times shared. Her legacy will be upheld by her five grandchildren and a score of family & friends.

Veronica was welcomed into eternity by the ancestors which included her father Lewis Wesley Sr., bonus father Robert Bebbs Sr., brother Lewis "Man" Wesley Jr., grandparents Frederick D. Traylor, Sr., Thelma Johnson-Traylor, Louise Owens, great grandmother Mary Sarah Miller, aunt Mildred McMullen, and nephews Raylin Weaver & Brandon Wesley.

We gather to honor and remember the life of a gentle soul who touched the lives of others with her kindness and love. Though she may be gone from our sight, she will forever remain in our hearts. A ray of hope in our lives, her spirit will forever be a reminder of the beauty and strength that resides within us all.

May Veronica rest in peace, knowing she was cherished and will never be forgotten. Her spirit was as warm as her smile, touching the lives of so many with her kindness and compassion. Veronica's memory and legacy live on in the hearts of her loved ones.

Lovingly shared by her family
