

Gratitude from the Alli Family

The family of Ruth “Corky” F. Alli wishes to express heartfelt appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown during her physical illness and ultimate healing. May God bless you for your thoughtfulness.

Loving shared by the Family

Ministry and After-Care Transitional Arrangements Entrusted To
J.E. Washington Funeral Services
2234 Glenwood Ave. ☎ Youngstown, OH 44511
(330)782.8500

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Ruth Alli

1928 - 2024

Wednesday, July 24, 2024

Calling Hours 10:00 am

Funeral Service 11:00 am

Jaylex Event Center
2110 Glenwood Ave., Youngstown, OH 44511

J.E. WASHINGTON
FUNERAL SERVICES, INC.

Order of Service

Officiating Clergy Rev. Dawan O. Buie

Prayer of Comfort

Sacred Text Reading

Music Ministry

George Biggs Jr.

Life & Legacy of Ruth

Read Silently

"Lord, I'm Available to You"

Tributes & Reflections

Syesha Shaw

Duane Gooden

Music Ministry

April Gilbert

Words of Comfort

Pastor Buie

Committal

Benediction

"I Shall Wear A Crown"

The Life & Legacy of Ruth "Corky" Alli

Ruth F. Alli, affectionately known as Corky, peacefully departed this world on July 16, 2024, surrounded by the love of her family. She was born on December 3, 1928, in Youngstown,, to the union of Leslie & Ruth Thomas-Biggs.

Ruth's work as a caterer at Hallie Stewart's Catering showcased her passion for hospitality. Ruth's passion for the culinary arts shone brightly, as she expertly crafted her signature flavorful chicken and beef curry dishes.

Ruth, along with her late husband, Jeremiah Alli, built a welcoming home within the community. She was the bedrock of the family, offering sage counsel and wisdom. As a former member of the once Victory Lutheran Church, Ruth applied her heart and hands wherever they were needed. She maintained the appearance of the facilities, taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible school. Committed to her faith, she united with the Millcreek United Methodist Church.

Despite her petite stature, Ruth was a true force to be reckoned with, known for her unwavering discipline and tender heart. She was a cook for the Victory Lutheran HeadStart program, serving nourishing meals to countless toddlers, which among them included LeBron James.

Ruth found joy in the simple things such as her love for classic soap operas. She loved traveling and the camaraderie of family gatherings. She found solace in crossword puzzles, scripture reading.

Ruth's memory will forever be cherished by her daughters Kim Dalton and Clara Livingston, while her siblings Michele "Carla" (Dana) Pilson and Mike Biggs will uphold the family heritage. Her legacy will remain luminous through her beloved grandchildren LeQuan (Dontae) Lucas, Kitwan Dalton, Erica Alli, Dena Alli, Mitchell Alli, and Terrance Livingston. Ruth will be fondly remembered by her great-grandchildren, including Syesha Shaw who lovingly assisted in her care, and a cadre of other relatives and friends.

After a life well lived, Ruth was welcomed into eternity by her parents, spouse, son Eric Alli, grandsons Eric Alli, Jr., and Joseph Livingston and siblings Loretta Shaw, Harriet Gooden, Sherwood Isom, George Biggs, Genevieve "Ginny" Biggs and Tony Biggs.