The Legacy of Tammy Ann Rachele Hosey

A beloved mother, sister, aunt, and friend, Tammy departed this life on September 21, 2025. Born on July 1, 1958, in Alliance, OH, Tammy made her home in Sharon, PA, where she brought warmth and authenticity to the lives of others.

A proud graduate of Alliance High School, Tammy dedicated her life to caring for others as a personal care aide at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Retirement Center, where she touched the lives of many.

Tammy was treasured and revered for her honesty, consistently sharing her truth with transparency while always keeping it real. A true champion of the Pittsburgh Steelers, Tammy found joy in sporting events—be it basketball, baseball, or simply cheering on her favorite teams from her cozy chair.

With an eclectic taste in music, Tammy found solace in jazz, R&B, and rap. She believed in the power of self-care, beautifully maintaining her nails and hair, reminding us all to take time for ourselves amidst life's hustle. She cherished engaging in simple pleasures, like bowling nights, indulging in seafood boils at Red Lobster, and enjoying her daily cup of coffee—extra cream, lots of sugar!

Tammy is lovingly honored by her sons, Lamar Chestnut, Terry Greene, and James Hosey; bonus son Marino Harris; sister, Lia Taylor; cherished niece, Shakira Taylor, who was more like the daughter Tammy never had; and dear nephew/bonus son, Tubby Hosey. She also leaves precious memories with her sister/friends Linda "Nucy" Andrews, Rosie Bennett and Cindy Burns. Her legacy will continue to be illuminated via her 18 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren, also with an expansive host of family and friends- all who were the center of her heart.

As Tammy crossed the celestial shores, she joins the ancestral gathering of the elders which includes her parents Lena Morris and James Perry; son John B. Hosey III; as well as her siblings Jonathon Watkins and Carla Royster, each who preceded her into eternity. Though she may no longer be with us, Tammy's spirit will forever linger in our hearts, a lasting reminder to live authentically, love deeply, and keep it real.
