

THE BROKEN CHAIN

We little knew that morning
That God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

You left us precious memories
Your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you
You are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

The Life and Legacy of Carmen Dolores Stewart

Our beloved Carmen transitioned into eternity on September 26, 2025. Born in the vibrant city of Canton, Ohio, on October 30, 1966, to the union of Carlos Meadows and Delores Hailey, Carmen's spirit brought warmth and joy to all who knew her.

A graduate of McKinley High School, class of 1984, Carmen accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior and was baptized at Deliverance Christian Church. After graduation, she initially worked as a Medical Assistant before a career as a Pharmacy Technician, embodying compassion and dedication in her work.

Carmen's creativity was reflected in her passions in life which embraced a love of music, journaling, writing poetry, crocheting, cooking, and various crafting. Her affinity for shades of purple reflects her refined sense of power and purpose in life.

Carmen moved to Corpus Christi, Texas and began a new journey with the love of her life, Cleofus Stewart, whom she married on November 2, 2009. Though she lived in Texas, she stayed connected to home through her family and her loyalty to the Cleveland Browns and Cavaliers.

Carmen leaves her memories to be celebrated by her husband, Cleofus Stewart; mother, Delores Hailey Weir; sons, Delorean Anderson and Napoleon Green; bonus sons, Antonio Stewart, Romeo Stewart, and Angel Stewart. She also leaves precious memories with her sister, Carla (Steve) Turner; nephews, Carlos Stokes & Charles Minor III; niece, Ciara (Jerrod) Ballard.

Her enduring love will illuminate through five grandchildren; cherished uncle and aunt, Wallace and Lovie Hailey; treasured cousins, Pamela Hailey, Vincent & Pam Hailey, and Gino Hailey, and special friends, Monique Compton, Yvette Kolbs, Star Durnes, Celetta Jones, Tuesday Stokes, Simone Carthon, and Tony Goodman. Collectively the Meadows, Weir, and McKeythan families will share fondest memories of Carmen.

As Carmen crossed the celestial sands into eternity, she takes her seat at the ancestral table which includes father, Carlos Meadows, and stepfather, James Weir, who preceded her in death. Her legacy will live on in the countless lives she touched, as we hold onto the memories that will remain etched in our hearts.

Carmen will forever be remembered—for her kindness, her laughter, and the everlasting light she brought into our lives.

Lovingly shared by the family
