The Life & Legacy of Nivia Andujar

In loving memory of Nivia Andujar, a radiant soul born on December 14, 1987, in Youngstown, Ohio. She was the beloved daughter of Rose Torres and the late Edwin Andujar. Nivia's journey through this world brought light to everyone she encountered until her untimely departure on January 13, 2026. She leaves behind warmth, laughter, and an indelible mark on the hearts of her loved ones.

A graduate of Warren G. Harding High School, Nivia lived a life filled with ambition and grace, embracing each day with a heart full of love. She found joy in the simple things, such as cooking for her family, the soothing sounds of old school R&B music flowing from her boom box, and the peaceful moments spent surrounded by her beloved plants on her back porch.

Nivia's love for pink roses was matched only by her devotion to creating a clean, welcoming home which reflected her vibrant, positive energy. Her laughter was infectious, her smile a beacon of positivity that could light up even the darkest days.

Proud of her Puerto Rican heritage and strong sense of family, Nivia's legacy is entrusted to her loving children Ronald Rosa Jr., Ryan Rosa and Rosemary Rosa. Precious memories are shared by her mother and sisters Ashley Starkey, Amber Gonzalez, Jessica Oracio, Jasmine Andujar, and Yesenia Andujar, along with a score of family and friends. Nivia will be fondly remembered for living life simply, joyfully, and without complication, sharing her beautiful energy with everyone around her. All who knew her will carry a piece of her heart with appreciation for her gift of love, warmth, and good times.

As Nivia crossed the celestial sands into eternity, she became reunited with her father and grandparents, Nilda & Jaime Torres and Alivilda & Thomas Andujar.
