With Gratitude from Parkman Family

The family of Annie Pearl wishes to thank everyone for the intentional acts of love & outpouring of kindness which have been extended during this time of bereavement. The family also expresses deep appreciation to the Southern Care Hospice staff, Home Instead personal aide agency and to the cousins and friends for helping to make Annie's last days comfortable. "God is not unrighteous to forget your labor of love."-Hebrews 6:10

Celebrate My Life

Remember me with love and joy,
Let gratitude fill your heart.
Thankful for the time we had,
Gone...yet not apart.

If we measured life in moments,
Not in months or years,
I lived a hundred lifetimes,
Loved by all who hold me dear.

I hope you'll find your smile,
And generously speak my name.
Share stories and my heart,
Your love for life unchanged.
Celebrate the life I lived,
I will be watching from above.
I am always with you,
Sending you my light and love.

The Life & Legacy of Annie Pearl Parkman

Annie Pearl Parkman, who entered into eternal rest on March 24, 2026, at the age of 96. Born on January 24, 1930, in Lafayette, Alabama, Annie was the beloved daughter of Jessie Holloway and John Henry Jordan. Annie lived a life filled with resilience, grace, and a deeply rooted sense of family.

Annie was united in holy matrimony to Arthur G. Parkman Sr. and from that union they were blessed with a son, Arthur G. Parkman Jr. She will be lovingly remembered for the unwavering devotion she showed to her family and friends.

Annie was a presser at Masters Tuxedo, a testament to her strong work ethic and commitment to excellence in her craft. Though she never sought the spotlight, her feisty spirit and calm demeanor left a lasting impression on those fortunate enough to cross her path. While understating her approach, she crafted a legacy that will be cherished by her loved ones.

Annie will be remembered for her quiet strength, her love for those she held dear, and her enduring legacy that will carry on through the lives she touched. She leaves cherished memories with her daughter-in-love & devoted caregiver, Crystal Parkman; grandsons Arthur G Parkman III, Christopher (Elizabeth) Parkman, and great-grandchildren Nevahia, Audric, Alessandra. Along with her immediate family, a circle of relatives and friends will cherish the memories and love she imparted throughout her life.

As her faith became sight, Annie was reunited with her beloved husband, parents and son who preceded her into eternity. The tender memories of Annie's warmth, faith, and enriching resilience will forever remain etched in the hearts of her legacy bearers. She leaves behind a rich tapestry of beautiful memories that will continue to inspire.
