They say there is a reason

They say there is a reason.
They say that time will heal,
But neither time or reason,
Will change the way we feel.

For no one knows the heartache,
That lies behind our smiles,
No one knows how many times,
We have broken down and cried.

We want to tell you something,
So there won't be any doubt,
You're so wonderful to think of,
But so hard to do without.

There is no night without a dawning,
No Winter without a Spring,
And beyond death's dark horizon,
Our hearts once more will sing.

For those who leave us for a while,
Have only gone away
Out of a restless careworn world,
Into a "Brighter day".

The Life & Legacy of Timothy Vernon Menton Jr.

Timothy Vernon Menton Jr., the son of Kim D. Macklin Menton and Timothy Menton Sr., shared his first smile to the world on April 15, 1981, in Youngstown, OH. Unexpectedly, Tim would share his last smile with the world at his residence on June 7, 2026. Tim was a beloved son, brother, grandson, and friend, whose warmth and kindness left a lasting impact on all who knew him. He was educated at St. Patrick Elementary, Hillman Junior High, and Woodrow Wilson High Schools, but the lessons he learned about respect, kindness, and loyalty became his true education.

Known for his impeccable style, sharp sense of self and collection of designer fragrances, Tim was a man who understood the importance of first impressions. In perfectly matched outfits from head to toe, Timothy was always dressed to impress, embodying a style that caught the eyes of all who crossed his path. Whatever the occasion, Timmy always brought a level of freshness and an olfactory aura that turned heads wherever he went.

Timothy was more than just a man with a keen sense of fashion; he was a proud soul, a Cadillac aficionado, rolling through life with resilience, proving that when life handed him lemons, he crafted the sweetest lemonade. Ever respectful, Timothy treated everyone, especially his elders, with dignity and honor.

A proud fan of the New York Knicks, he cheered passionately, and he surely would have celebrated their recent comeback with unmatched enthusiasm. After all, he believed in the power of hope and the thrill of the game. He loved and kept his Caddies immaculate, often turning heads on the streets, always rolling in elegance and grace. Yet his prized possession was his ebony-colored Executive Series' Lincoln Continental which was gifted to him by his father

The tapestry of family love was deeply woven and embedded in Timothy's life which was everything to him. Tim leaves cherished memories with his loving parents; supportive sisters Ebony (D'Andre) N. Penn, Timeka Gayles; devoted grandfather, Lewis W. Macklin Sr. and his beloved nieces, Nia Attaway and Ashia Penn who enriched his life.

Timmy found strength and was blessed with an array of relatives which includes uncles Rev. Lewis (Dorothy) W. Macklin II, Tristan Lewis and aunts Iola "Judy" Menton, Vernetta Macklin-Jordan, Jackie Spann-Menton, Joan "Joy" Hopkins along with a score of other kinfolk and friends.

As Timothy crossed the celestial sands into eternity, he is now among the ancestors which include his grandparents Carol L. Barrett Carter, Ophelia "Red" Washbrook Menton, Rufus Menton, Sr; great grandparents Edna M. Chambers, William L. Ware, Ora McCain Barrett, Vernon S. Barrett Sr.; great-great grandparents Lillian & Oliver McCain, Mamie & George Ware Sr., Cora & Richard Macklin Sr. and great-great-great grandmother Eunice Coleman; aunts Annette Jones, Darlene Menton, Gracie Menton, Patricia Menton and uncles James "Popeye" Johnson Sr., Rufus Menton Jr., Issac Menton, Kenneth Menton and cousin Charles "Duke" Menton.

As we honor Timothy's memory, we remember him not only for his time with us but for the love and joy he brought into our lives. He will be deeply missed, but his spirit will forever live on in the hearts of those he touched.
