WHEN I SEE A FLAG DRAPED COFFIN

by Gene Howard

Gene Howard copyright 2010

When I see a flag draped coffin of a Vet who's life is done
I think about our freedom that they have fought and won.
I wonder if we love and support our Vets enough today,
for the terrible price that each one has had to pay.

Do we really remember them on Memorial day or is it just a time for picnics, and a time to play.
When the pledge of allegiance to our flag is spoken
Do we really think of all the families that were broken

Broken that Old Glory may fly freely over this land, yet some came back with no welcome of a band
no parade or crowd to welcome them back home, feeling like no one cared and they were all alone.

This Veteran cannot hear you as you speak today, but the next time you meet a Vet along the way,
tell them you appreciate them and all that they do,
and that you are proud to fly the red white and blue.

Today as this beloved Veteran is placed into the grave,
let us not forget the great sacrifices that were made.
Let us salute and sing of the flag that they did so love in this great land, given to us by our God's great love.

The Life & Legacy of Gregory Kinsey Jr.

Gregory Kinsey Jr. left this world on June 9, 2026, in Austin, Texas at the age of 42. Gregory was born on October 1, 1983, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, the beloved son of the late Gregory Kinsey Sr and Mrs. Deborah (Bridges) Kinsey.

Gregory graduated in 2002 from Farrell Area High School, during his academic tenure he was an outstanding track athlete.

Gregory served our country with honor and valor in the United States Army, serving a tour of duty in Iraq. As a proud Army veteran, Gregory continued to dedicate himself to his family and community.

He pursued a career in communication and information technology where his talents for information security were highly regarded.

Gregory's laughter could light up the room, and his love for his family knew no bounds. He is survived by his devoted wife, Esraa Mohammad Izzat Abedal Qader, his loving mother, Deborah Kinsey, and his children, Amira, Ahava, Amare, Alijah, and Ayleah.

Gregory was also a proud grandfather to his granddaughter, Maleah. Gregory shared a special bond with his brothers, Gavin (Nicole) Kinsey and Tre Kinsey Sr., and his warm spirit will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He leaves treasured memories with a host of additional family and friends, each whom he loved.

Besides his father Gregory Sr, he was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Floyd and Beatrice Bridges and his paternal grandparents Everlena and Emmanuel Kinsey.

Gregory was a devoted husband, loving father, and a loyal friend. His memory will continue to inspire those who loved him. Let us come together to honor his legacy and the joy he brought into our lives.
